Road to Eternity

Life is but a stopping place,
A pause in what's to be,
A resting place along the road,
To sweet Eternity.
We all have different journeys,
Different paths along the way,
We all were meant to learn some things,
But never meant to stay...
Our destination is a place,
Far greater than we know,
For some, the journey's quicker
For some, the journey is slow.
But when the journey finally ends,
We'll claim a great reward,
And find an everlasting peace,
Together with the Lord.

Obituary

The final chapter in the life of Mr. Harrison S. Davis, Jr. was written on Tuesday, November 9, 2021 when he answered our Heavenly Father's call to come home. He was born in Fairfield County on August 27, 1952. He was the son of Harrison Davis, Sr. and the late Alice V. Davis.

Harrison attended the public schools of Fairfield County and graduated from the Peace Corp. He was known as a "Jack of all trades."

Those left to cherish his memories are his wife, Gail Mobley Davis; son, Kelvin R. (Lenora) Mobley; grandchildren; Keterial and Kelvin, Jr of Winnsboro, SC; his siblings, Elizabeth Murphy of Ridgeway, SC, Nathaniel (Margaret) Davis of Joppatowne, Maryland, Robert (Annette) Davis of Dallas, Georgia, and Kelvin (Zelinda) Davis of Arlington, Tennessee. He also leaves to cherish his fond memories nieces and nephews, Yolanda Murphy, Sal Davis, Carnella Murphy, Germayel Murphy, Carnell Murphy, Jr., Tameara (Adrian) Huff, Hope (Shun) Abraham, Casiopea (Adrain) Torian, Ryan, China and Jade Davis; an extra special great niece, Royal Johnson and buddy, Leslie Mobley.

He was preceded in death by his twin sisters, Linda Davis and Brenda Davis.
