Remember Me

Remember me with smiles not tears
For all the joy, through all the years.
Recall a closeness that was ours,
A love as sweet as fragrant flowers.

Don't dwell on thoughts that cause you pain,
We'll see each other once again.
I am at peace...try to believe,
It was my time...I had to leave.

But "what a view" I have from here,
I see your face I feel you near.
I follow you throughout the day,
You're not alone along the way.

And when God calls you, you will be,
Right by my side, right with me.
Till then, I'll wait by heaven's door,
We'll be united...evermore!

Obituary

Mr. Jalen Deon Robertson was born on August 18, 1998, in Columbia, SC to Sonja Nichole Robertson and the late Willie Randy “Bulldog” Robertson. He departed this life on Thursday December 9, 2021 in Greenwood, SC.

Growing up, Jalen attended Word, Spirit, & Faith Baptist and White Oak Baptist Church #1 where he enjoyed singing on the youth choir and ushering for the church services. He played football and basketball for his local recreation center. At a very young age, Jalen had an entrepreneurial spirit. As a teenager, he would come up with ideas on how to earn money, whether it was odd jobs around town or selling snacks at his high school. While in High School, Jalen became fascinated with Wall Street and the Stock market. He would read the newspaper and watch the financial channel to keep up with gains and losses. He would later become an investor of stocks and crypto currency. Jalen attended Fairfield Central High School in Winnsboro, SC and graduated in the Class of 2016. Soon after, he attended Greenville Tech in 2017 where he started working towards a degree in Computer Technology.

In 2020, Jalen received his CDL and earlier this year he obtained his LLC. He always wanted to be a truck driver like his father and to become a successful entrepreneur. Everyone that came to know Jalen knew his love for his family and his desire to take care of his family. Above all, his greatest accomplishment was being a devoted father to his daughter, X’yla, whom he loved and adored.

He is survived by his daughter X’yla Robertson; his mother, Sonja Robertson; his stepfather, Jeremiah Weaver; grandfather, Roger Johnson (Barbara Brown); siblings, Michael Miller, Martez (Taneal) Robertson, Xaviera (Antwyone) Clayborne, Khaila Robertson (James), Joshua Weaver, and Benjamin Carter; aunts and uncles, Dr. Carmen Johnson (Anthony Hagler), William Johnson, Karen Smith (Anthony “Unc”), Kathy Johnson, and Barbara Willingham; nephews, Davon and Keshon Miller, Chancellor Clayborne, and Aston Gary; nieces, Kamil and Raven Robertson and Haleigh Joyner; his special cousins, Shameka (Jason) Nall, Isaiah (Jalisa) Haggard, Keana Haggard, Anthony Smith, Jr. (AJ), Akeia Hall; his girlfriend, Whitney Davis; and his best friends, D’Andre Anderson, Myles Pearson, Jayquan Brown, Danny Holmes, Anthony Ragin, and Kenayas Kelly; and a host of other friends and family.

He was preceded in death by his father, Willie Randy “Bulldog” Robertson; his grandmother, Marguerite Johnson Davis; his uncle, Darrell Johnson, and his great-uncle, Chamberlain Able.

Medicine wheel turns

Like time

Toward the sun

Light chasing shadows

We lift up our voices

Into the wind

So that our beloved

Can hear our love

As he moves into

The horizon

Joining our ancestors

Our voices rise into harmony

To say goodbye for now

Until our souls’ whispers

Are again “Together” as the medicine

Wheel turns to heal.

When I held you in my arms for the first time, my heart was filled with joy and happiness. I will forever remember the love and excitement you brought into my life. Until we meet again, my beautiful son.
