

Acknowledgements

The family of Mr. Rondell Harris would like to express their heartfelt appreciation and sincere thanks for all acts of kindness and love shown to them during their time of bereavement.

If You Could See Me Now

If you could see me now, you wouldn't shed a tear.
Though you may not understand why I'm no longer here.

Remember my spirit, that's the real me.

I'm still very much alive, oh, if you could only see!
I've beheld our Father's face. I've touched my Savior's hand.

The angels all rejoiced as I entered the Promised Land.
Beyond the gates of pearl, I walk on golden streets.
I've touched the walls of jasper, dipped my foot in the crystal sea.

The beauty is beyond words, nothing can compare.
I've even seen your mansion; someday I will meet you there.
Allow Jesus to be your guide, His word will show you the way.

So, please, don't cry! We will meet again someday!

Obituary

Mr. Rondell Harris was born in Lugoff, SC on June 9, 1965 to Mrs. Mary Alice Harris and the late Mr. Tillman Harris. He departed this life on Thursday, February 10, 2022 at MUSC Kershaw Health Hospital in Camden, SC.

Rondell was a very lovable person. In his free time and on the weekends, he loved to fish and was also a big Clemson fan. Rondell was a very special person that smiled and joked all the time. He would make your day with crazy pictures and jokes.

Rondell graduated from Lugoff-Elgin High School and after high school, he joined the United States Army. He completed his basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, MO. He later became a member of the National Guard. After leaving the military, Rondell worked in the Logging Industry as a heavy equipment operator until his death. His career in the Logging Industry spanned 30 years. He was employed by Palmetto Timber. He loved his job, he loved his boss, Mr. Boyd Shannon, and he never missed a day of work.

He leaves to cherish his memory his children, Christopher Harris and Amanda Harris of Texas, Savannah Harris and Chandler Harris of Lugoff, SC and Gina Harris of Elgin, SC; his mother, Mary Alice Harris of Lugoff, SC; one brother, Tillman Harris, Jr. and one sister, Morinda Harris both of Lugoff, SC; grandchildren, nieces, nephews; and a host of other loving relatives and friends.
