

Order of Service

Reverend Marcello Wheeler, Presiding

Prelude -----

Processional -----Clergy and Family

Opening Selection-----Mt. Olive Baptist Church

Prayer of Comfort-----

Scriptures ----- Reverend Marcello Wheeler

Old Testament----- Psalm 91

New Testament----- I Thessalonians 4:13-19

Solo----- Mr. Montez Kennedy

Tributes:

Poem -----Mrs. Marie B. Shields,
Representing the Children

Poem -----Ms. Tyresha Qualls,
Representing the Grandchildren

Selection -----Mt. Olive Baptist Church

Words of Comfort----- Reverend Marcello Wheeler

Recessional----- Funeral Directors

Committal and Presentation

Mt. Olive Baptist Church Cemetery
Ridgeway, SC

Floral Bearers
Great-Grandchildren

Pall Bearers
Grandchildren

Family Acknowledgements

We would like to express our sincere appreciation and gratitude for all the many acts of kindness, prayers, phone calls, floral tributes and all expressions of love during this period of bereavement. Every deed of kindness has been a source of strength and comfort. We also extend a special thank you to Precious Adult Day Care for services rendered by Ms. Tonya Simons who went well above and beyond her duties with loving care and empathy treating our mother as if she was her own. Words will never be enough to express our gratitude for what you have done. May God bless you all and we ask that you continue to keep our family uplifted in prayer.

Nelson's Funeral Home
270 N. Dogwood Ave.
Ridgeway, SC 29130

803-337-4500·www.nelsonsofridgeway.com

IN LOVING Memory

Mrs. Marguerite Belton Qualls

October 19, 1944 – March 8, 2022

Sunday, March 13, 2022
1:30 P.M.

Mt. Olive Baptist Church
4991 Park Road
Ridgeway, SC 29130

Reverend Marcello Wheeler, Pastor

Obituary

Mrs. Marguerite Belton Qualls, the daughter of the late Sylena Belton and Herbert Stewart, was born on October 19, 1944. She departed this earthly life on March 8, 2022 at her home surrounded by her loving family that had cared for her unconditionally over the years as her health deteriorated.

At an early age, Mrs. Qualls accepted Christ and was a member of Mt. Olive Baptist Church of Ridgeway, SC. She was educated in the Fairfield County Public Schools. For a short time, she worked at Charm Corporation in Ridgeway, SC before becoming a full-time housewife caring for her family.

Ms. Marguerite Belton was united in marriage to Mr. Wilbur Qualls. Through that loving marriage, eight children were born: Patricia Belton, Ronnie Belton, Sheila Belton, Thomas Qualls, Timothy Qualls, Brenda Qualls, Jennifer Qualls and Kevin Qualls.

Mrs. Qualls was a quiet soul with a wonderful spirit and a beautiful loving smile. Family was most important to her and she cared lovingly for her children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and she would even babysit for close family members when they were in need. She loved to spend time with her family for birthday celebrations, holidays, and family gatherings cooking out and preparing her "world famous" catfish stew. When she was no longer able to care for herself, her children and grandchildren stepped in to ensure that she received quality care in a loving environment at home.

Mrs. Qualls is survived by four daughters: Mrs. Patricia (Roosevelt) Robinson, Mrs. Jennifer Qualls (Kendall) Robertson, Mrs. Sheila Hemphill all of Ridgeway, SC, and Ms. Brenda Qualls of Spartanburg, SC; two sons, Mr. Thomas Qualls and Mr. Timothy (Annette) Qualls of Ridgeway, SC; nineteen grandchildren; forty great-grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. Leester (Harrison) Davis of Ridgeway, SC; one brother, Herbert Belton of Ridgeway, SC; five sisters-in-law, Mrs. Ophelia Bell, Ms. Carolyn

*A dedicated grandmother, mother,
sister, and friend.*

Obituary cont'd

J. Qualls, Mrs. Helen Q. Boulware, Mrs. Catherine Murphy and Ms. Hazeline Qualls; three brothers-in-law, Mr. Eddie (Lallie) Qualls, Jr., Deacon Jimmie L. Qualls, and Mr. Leon Qualls; one very special paternal niece, Mrs. Henrietta Gibson; and a host of loving nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

In addition to her parents, Mrs. Qualls was preceded in death by her husband, Wilbur Qualls; two sons, Kevin Qualls and Ronnie Belton; one sister, Bessie Mae Robertson; two brothers, Larry Belton and Edward Mickle, Jr.; her mother-in-law, Isabell Qualls; two brothers-in-law, Chester Qualls and Frank Qualls; four aunts, Lillie M. Hammond, Geneva Milhouse, Elizabeth Brown, and Ethel Belton; and two uncles, Daniel Belton and Abram B. Jones.

She leaves behind a loving family to cherish her memory as a mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, aunt and friend.

