The Angels are waiting at Heaven's Gate for

Poem

God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb.
He gently closed those loving eyes
And whispered, "Peace Be Thine."
The weary hours, the days of pain,
The sleepless nights are passed.
That ever-present worn-out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.

God saw that you were getting weary,
So He did what He knew best;
He came and stood beside you,
And whispered, "come and rest."
You bade no one a last farewell,
Not even a good-bye.
You were gone before we knew it,
And only God knows why.

Acknowledgements

When it seemed that our loss was too great to bear,
We looked up, and our friends were there.
With flowers and words, written and spoken,
With faces smiling and hearts open.
You comforted us and shared our grief.
God will bless you and keep you, granting all relief.
Our gratitude cannot be adequately expressed
With mere words, but they are the best
That we have to offer in saying "THANK YOU"
For lifting the clouds and letting the sunshine through.
