

I have only Slipped Away

I am I, and you are you.
Whatever we were to each other,
that we still are.
Call me by my old familiar name,
Speak to me in the easy way you always used.
Put no difference in your tone,
wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow.

Laugh as we always laughed
at the little jokes we shared together.
Let my name be ever
the household word it always was.
Let it be spoken without effort,
without a trace of a shadow on it.
Life means all that it ever meant,
It is the same as it ever was.
There is unbroken continuity.

Why should I be out of mind
because I am out of sight?
I am but waiting for you for an interval,
somewhere very near, just around a corner.

OBITUARY

Death is not extinguishing the light, it is putting out the lamp because the dawn has come. On Tuesday, July 26, 2016 the Lord called her home.

Homezelle Hughes was born on September 17, 1934 to the late Ruby and Frank Turman. She was educated in the Elbert County School System and furthered her education in Florida.

Preceding her in death were her husband Wilson Hughes and two sisters: Margie Nell McHoney and Ledonia Murray.

She leaves to cherish her memory a loving son and daughter-in-law Horace Turman (Thelma F. Turman); five sisters: Janie Ware, Atlanta, GA, Frances Norwood, Jacksonville, FL, Ivory Phillips, Jewel Turman and Genora Harris, all of Elberton, GA; 9 grandchildren, 11 great grandchildren and several nieces, nephews and many friends.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The family of Mrs. Homezelle Hughes would like to thank everyone for their acts of kindness shown during our time of bereavement. The phone calls, food, and visits are sincerely appreciated. May God continue to bless of you.
