Obituary

Kessinger was born on June 24, 1968 to the late Robert Lee Walton and Frances Dye Walton in Elberton, Georgia. Kessinger gained his wings on August 16, 2016 at Athens Regional Hospital.

Kessinger attended ECCHS where he was active in ROTC, and a member of the Drill Team. He graduated May, 1986. He decided to give his life to God June 1985 at Lofton Grove under the leadership of the late Reverend William Fortson.

On September 19, 1996, Kessinger became one with Joetta (Partlow) Walton. During this union, three beautiful angels were born. He has worked all his life at various jobs, but he was employed with Dixie Granite since 1998.

Preceding him in death in 2005 was his daughter, Alexandria Denise.

He leaves to cherish his memories his wife, Joetta Walton; children, Jazmin Walton, Kaci Walton, Sydney Walton, Dequavius Lewis, Shaquanna Walton, Emmika Walton, Ryan Blackwell; parents, Bobby Anderson, Frances Walton; brothers, Michael Anderson, Richard Dye; sisters, Melissa Rucker, Cassandra Walton, Kimbberly Walton, LaShawn Heard, Rhashida Browner, Nevae'h Anderson; 7 grandchildren; two sisters-in-law, Sherryl Partlow and Tetley Anderson, and two brothers-in-law, Kelton Partlow, Sr., and Ernest Rucker, and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles and cousins.

My Husband

You were my heart, my soul, and my everything. I am so glad that God put us in each other paths when He did. Your smile and laugh is what melted my heart the first time we met. I am happy that God loaned you to me for nineteen years, and that we shared 30 years together in all. I love you Poochie, and I miss you so much.

Love

Your Honey!
