The Family

As we look Back

As we look back over time we find ourselves wondering.....

Did we remember to thank you enough.

For all you have done for us?

For all the times you we're by our sides to help and support us.....

To celebrate our successes.

To understand our problems and accept our defects?

Or for teaching us by your example, the value of hard work, good judgment, courage and integrity?

We wonder if we ever thanked you for sacrifices you made.

To let us have the very best?

And for the simple things like laughter, smiles and times we shared?

If we have forgotten to show our Gratitude enough for all the things you did, we're thanking you now.

And we are hoping you know all along, how much you meant to us.

Your son, Darryl Andrews, Jr.

MEMORIES OF DAD

I will take this special moment
To turn my thoughts to Dad
Thank him for the home he gave
For all the things we had.
We think about the fleeting years
Too quickly, gone for good
It seems like only yesterday
I'd go back if I could.
A time when Dad was always there,
No matter what the weather.
Always strong when things went wrong
He held our lives together.
He strived so hard from day to day
And never once complained.
With steady hands, he worked so hard
And kept the family name.
He taught us that hard work pays off,
You reap just what you sow.
He said that if you tend your crops,
Your field will overflow.
My life has been bountiful
He taught me how to give
In his firm and steadfast way
He taught me how to live.
Dad dwells among the angels now
He left us much too soon
He glides across a golden field
Above the harvest moon.
I see him in the summer rain,
He rides upon the wind
And when my path is beaten down
He picks me up again.

Chandella Monique Andrews

John 5: 24

Verily, verily I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation, but is passed from death unto life.

Didn't sugarcoat his words when talking to anyone

Always talked about the goodness of God

Realized how blessed he was as the challenges of sickness came

Realized life choices came with consequences

Yearned to be free of pain

Loved his family, especially his wife, children, and grandchildren

For my father, my friend,
This to me you have always been.
Through the good times and the bad,
Your understanding I have had.
A gentle man at heart,
This sets you apart,
From the others I've seen,
You mean so much to me.
The laughter we have shared,
Cannot be compared.
The tears I have shed,
As you lovingly nodded your head.
You have always been there,
With a smile and a hug,
A precious gift from our God up above.
The times that I have been down and sad,
Your silly ways could always make me glad.
You gave me strength to carry on,
Even when all hope seemed to be gone.
The lessons in life that I have learned,
Are from your genuine love and concern.
With deep appreciation for all you have done.
You, Dad,
Are my number one.

With all my love, Your Daughter, Your Friend
