The Life of Bro. Guffen Winkfield

Bro. Guffen Winkfield was ushered into eternal rest on Monday night at Nancy Hart Health Care. He was born August 8, 1935 to the late Daniel and Janie Lou McIntosh Winkfield.

Bro. Winkfield worked for Harmony Blue Granite for 43 years and cherished his work as a skilled profiler. He was exceptionally proud of his work profiling the base of the statue that sits on the square in Abbeville, South Carolina.

He was a faithful servant of God until his health failed. He served in many capacities in the church as minister, Bible School teacher, song leader and other capacities as needed. The church building was built in 1962 in which he was instrumental in erecting.

Bro. Winkfield leaves to cherish his memories, his wife Mrs. Estelle Thornton Winkfield, one brother, Samuel Winkfield of Katy, Texas, several stepchildren, brothers-in-law & sisters-in-law: Dr. Rev. Quincy & Gwendolyn Fortson, Mr. Claude & Shirley Dubose, Mary Jones, Ruth Jones and Marion Jones; nieces, nephews and cousins.

Peace With The Lord

“Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, what is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable ~ if anything is excellent or praiseworthy ~ think about such things.

Whatever you have learned or received or heard of me, or seen in me~put it to practice and the God of peace will be with you.”

Phillipians 4:8,9 (NIV)
