Obituary

Brenda Joyce Waller, known as “Sista” by family and close friends, was called home to live with her heavenly father on January 21, 2018. Born November 8, 1953, she was the daughter of Jeneva Jones Curry and the late Milford Curry.

Brenda was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, aunt, and friend. She shared many memories with the love of her life, the late Robert Eugene Waller.

Brenda was a member of Flat Rock CME Church, where she served as usher and stewardess until her health declined. She graduated from Hart County Training School in 1970.

Brenda was known for her boldness and loving heart. She devoted her life to caring for others as a nursing assistant at Hart Care Center, Heritage Nursing Home, and as receptionist at Care South.

She leaves her precious memories to her son, Juan (Teisha) Waller; grandchildren, Avery and Ryan Waller of Conyers, GA; mother, Jeneva Curry; siblings, Gloria Ann (Joe) Sturghill, Calvin (Tracy) Curry, and Clifford (Carolyn) Curry, all of Hartwell, GA; and Linda Pope and Steve (Patricia) Curry, both of Athens, GA; sisters-in-law, Vesta Craft and Gwen Waller, both of Hartwell, GA; Aunt Annette (Tony) Jackson, Uncle Bennie (Delores) Jones of Florida, Uncle Paul (Irene) Jones of Maryland and Aunt Beatrice Curry of Hartwell, GA; Goddaughter, Jolanda (Khalil) Rickett of Athens, GA; Godson, Reshad Curry of Hartwell, GA; and a host of nieces, nephews, other family and friends.

Behold, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves Therefore, be wise as a serpent and harmless as doves.

Matthew 10:16

Thank you “Sista”. Our Aunt Brenda was always bold, strong, and straight, and she commanded everything she spoke; but yet loving, caring, and thoughtful. You completed your mission as doctor and caregiver to so many. Thank God you were not only our Auntie, but a mother to us all. Rest in peace, “Sista”.
