Legacy of Mother Elzora Brown

Mother Elzora Johnson Brown was born on March 15, 1918 in Hartwell, GA to the late Mrs. Siddle Johnson. Mother Elzora departed this life on Thursday, January 24, 2019.

In 1950, she met and married Mr. Mack Ree Brown. They became the proud parents of four girls, Emma Mae Jones (deceased), Deloris Bruch, Linda Faye Roebuck, and Barbara Ann Verdell, who were all devoted to their mother.

She worked as a housekeeper, cooking, cleaning and raising children for her employers. Most of her life was spent in Hartwell where she retired and cared for her great grandchildren. She loved attending church and was a faithful member of New Hope Baptist Church, Hartwell, GA. In 2004, at the age of 86, Elzora moved to Metro Atlanta to be closer to two of her daughters, Deloris and Barbara. Mother Elzora resided with her daughter Barbara in Decatur, GA. God blessed her, by His grace, with 100 glorious years, surrounded by family members and friends. Elzora was a praying woman and loved to live a peaceful life.

She leaves to cherish her memory: three daughters, nine grandchildren, 17 great grandchildren and five great great-grandchildren. Her legacy was one of love and family. She will be sorely missed.
