Dear Mama,

I was blessed when God chose you to be my Mama. You have always been so beautiful inside and out. Through all of your heartache and struggles you remained strong and showed amazing perseverance. I never once heard you complain in the midst of your pain. You were always concerned about how everyone else was doing when you were the one hurting. I know that you were not perfect and neither am I, but God knows your heart and He knows how much you loved Him and that's all that matters. I just want you to know that I have never doubted your love for me. I know this because at the end of our conversations you would always say the same thing, "Mama loves you, and I'll be here." And that's exactly where you will stay, in my heart and soul forever.

P.S. Give my big sister, Donnette, and my Daddy a hug for me.

*Love your Baby Girl,
Porsha
