

Obituary

The love of God and His passionate tender mercies welcomed the soul and spirit of Evangelist Janice Thornton on Friday, May 31, 2019. She was born February 4, 1949 to the late Mr. and Mrs. Zoras Thornton, Sr.

Janice was a 1968 graduate of Blackwell Memorial High School. Shortly after high school, she moved to Elison NJ and it was at this time that she gave her life to Christ and answered the call of evangelism. She later moved back to Elberton, GA and continued her ministry work at Rucker's Grove Baptist Church, and later New Hope Full Gospel Baptist Church. A faithful minister, she touched many lives inside and outside of the church through prison ministry, hospital, and recently University Cancer and Blood Center.

Preceding her in death are her parents and a sister Shirley Harper.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her loving son Kenrick Thornton; siblings: Zoras (Ida Mae) Thornton, Jr., Clarence (Arizonia) Thornton, Eddie (Betty) Thornton, William (Shelby) Thornton, Beverly (Saul) Gaines, Steven Thornton, and Doris (Ulysses) Gray; one uncle Mr. James Edward Thornton; godchildren: Cashenna Roebuck, Bernard Roebuck, Latasha Brown and Titlan Wells; god grandchildren: Amaria Martin, Chadija Martin, Alexis Roebuck, Micah Roebuck, Mylan Roebuck and Amiracle Roebuck. She also leaves a host of god brothers and sisters, as well as nieces, nephews, other relatives and close friends.

Acknowledgement

The family would like to thank St. Mary's Hospital, The University Cancer and Blood Center, Elberton Co. Transit and all of her family and friends for the many expressions of comfort extended. Please know that whatever manner you chose to share your love and thoughtfulness, we are truly grateful and extremely thankful. May God continue to bless and keep each of you.
