

OBITUARY

James “Jim” Worthy Heard was born January 19, 1941 to the late Johnny Heard and Lillian Upshaw-Heard. He departed his earthly life on June 7, 2019.

James received his education at Blackwell Memorial High School in Elbert County. He retired from Marriott Marques Hotel in Atlanta, GA in October 1997 as a Banquet and Conference Supervisor.

James was a sports enthusiast of all sports especially “The Georgia Bulldawgs”, whom he enjoyed talking about the games with his sons Terry and Tavarus. He loved and enjoyed spending time with family and friends at BBQ’s, birthday parties and all celebrations.

James favorite past time was talking to the family on the phone and telling stories to anyone who would listen. He had a lot of terms of endearment, he would say to the family such as: “Hey bae bae”, “Excuse me please”, and most famous “This just between you and me”. Also, he loved to volunteer for Hosea Feed the Hungry.

James leaves to cherish his memory his sons: Terry (Sharon) Heard, Snellville, GA, and Tavarus Heard, East Point, GA; brothers: George Heard, David Heard (Mary), Paul Heard and Otis Heard; sisters: Barbara Heard, Alma Oliver and Maggie Glaze: seven grandchildren: Terry, Jr. “TJ” and Tayler Heard of Snellville, GA, Tyler, Alexis, Damian, Shania and Madison Heard of East Point, GA; and a host of nephews, nieces, other relatives and friends.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road, and the sun has set on me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room, why cry for a soul set free.
Miss me a little--but not too long, and not with your head bowed low,
Remember the love that we once shared, miss me--but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take, and each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan, a step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart, go to the friends we know.
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds, miss me--but let me go.
