

Oh I remember being a freshman coming into the high school days, felt like months and months. Hoping that it will all be over soon. Being a senior, the days started feeling like seconds, and you just wanted to spend every second with family and friends knowing that it will all be over soon. You know they say time flies by. I never thought that was true until now. But even though this journey has come to an end, it's time for another one to begin. It's funny because I wondered where I would be in the next 4 years, but wherever I go, whatever I do, I promise I will do the best I can. It is amazing that I will be taking my very last steps as a high school senior. I feel honored and blessed to have made it this far because I've seen so many friends drop out along the way. I just want you to go back and remember you taking your very last steps as a high school senior, and imagine how you will be feeling in the next couple of days. Seeing my family and friends rejoice in happiness is more than I could ever ask for.

As I take my last walk as a senior, I would like for you to come out and support me as I say my very last farewells!

Thank you,
Tyshon LaMetris Dye
