

Deacon Amos Simmons

Amos Simmons was born on August 1, 1941, to the late Feaster and Elizabeth Simmons. He was the 20th child of the late Feaster and the 4th child of the late Elizabeth Durham Simmons. He went home to join his heavenly Father on July 10, 2019.

He joined the Mt. Moriah Baptist Church at an early age. Later he joined Cedar Spring Baptist Church, then New Birth Missionary Baptist Church where he served as Chairman of the Deacon Board for 28 Years. He was a tile mason by trade.

Preceding him in death were 19 brothers and sisters.

He is survived by a loving, devoted and caring wife of 53 years, Lola Morrison Simmons; son, Joshua Simmons (Kim); one granddaughter Kiona; one nephew raised in the home, Zachary Thomas; a cousin in the household, Roy Lee Holland; sisters: Lizzette S. Sullivan, Mary S. Dunbar (Richard), Greenville, SC and Meta Marie Little (Bobby) Atlanta, GA.

He touched the lives of many god grandchildren, god-great-grandchildren, relatives and friends.

Afterglow

*I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
 I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.
 I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,
 Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.
 I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun;
 Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.*
