

Obituary

Mrs. Katherine L. Fortson

Katherine L. Fortson was born January 4, 1950 to the late Mr. John M. Tate and Mrs. Luetisha Fleming Tate in Elberton, GA. On September 1, 2019 the Angels called her home.

Katherine joined Westside Presbyterian at a early age, where she was an usher, choir member and on the youth committee. Katherine remained a member until her marriage to Mr. Jimmy L. Fortson, December 18, 1971. After her marriage Katherine moved her membership to be with her husband at Mt. Sinai FBH Church in Toccoa, GA.

Mrs. Fortson has been a housewife, worked at Elberton Manufacturing as a presser for many years and also worked at Comer Manufacturing as a presser. She was known for being a helpful hand to many.

Preceding her in death were her parents and a daughter Latoya Fortson.

She leaves memories to her husband Jimmy L. Fortson; son Kevin O’Neal Fortson (Crystal); sister Brenda (Ronnie) Clark; brothers-in-law: Joe T. (Brenda) Fortson, Gene M. (Emma) Fortson & Willie C. (Josephine) Fortson; grandchildren: Tyana Fortson, Londyn Fortson, Rodarious Fuller & Antanasha; and a host of nephews, nieces, other relatives and friends.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The family of the late Mrs. Katherine L. Fortson would like to take this time to thank our many friends and family for your many calls, visits, text, cards, food, and all other expressions of love during this time of bereavement. May God continue to bless each of you.

God Saw You Getting Tired

God saw you getting tired,
And a cure was not to be.
So He put His arms around you and whispered " Come to Me."
With tearful eyes we watched you,
as you slowly slipped away
Although we loved you dearly,
We couldn’t make you stay.
Your golden heart stopped beating,
Your tired hands put to rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He only takes the best.
