Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set on me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room, why cry for a soul set free.
Miss me a little--but not too long, and not with your head bowed low,
Remember the love that we once shared, miss me--but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take, and each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan, a step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart, go to the friends we know.
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds, miss me--but let me go.

Ms. Amelia Lenesia Eades

Amelia Lenesia Eades born on March 4, 1966 and went home to rest with the Lord on April 5, 2020. Amelia was born to Mary L. Harper and Junior Eades, both parents deceased. She departed her earthly life on April 5, 2020.

Amelia was a hard-working woman since the age of 15. Amelia carried a lot of titles, from freight manager to assistant manager. She maintained good work ethics by staying at these jobs for many years. She was a freight manager at Dollar Tree in Hartwell and Indiana for 11 years and worked at Dairy Queen in Hartwell for 13 years.

Amelia grew up in the Washington D.C., Maryland area, where she met the love of her life and started her family. Amelia later relocated to Georgia where she lived for over 19 years and made lots of friends. Amelia decided to move to Indianapolis, Indiana with her Husband where she resided for five years before she went with the Lord. Amelia will truly be missed by so many.

She joined two siblings in heaven Bobby Eades and Anthony Eades.

Amelia left behind a husband Lloyd Morton III of 37 years; together Amelia and Lloyd had three daughters Shakeyia Morton, Porcha Morton, and Shannon Eades, and helped raised two others Stephon Eades and Shenika Eades. Also, Amelia left behind four siblings, two brothers and two sisters: Ricky Eades, Stephanie Eades, Shelia Eades and Michael Eades; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts, and uncles. Amelia also had an abundance of friends.
