I'll Never Leave You

---

I'm in the wind, I am the rain.

I'm in the old songs you loved and sang.

I'm in the sunrays that

SHINE ON YOUR FACE,

I'll never leave you. I'm Every place.

I'm in a song, I'm in a book.

I'm everywhere you need me.

I'm every place you look.

need me, I'm where you

I can be touched.

Just remember how I LOVED ALL OF YOU,

So very much. I'm in your eyes.

I'm the tears you cry.

I'll never leave you, even when I die.

So look in the mirror, I'm still looking after you.

Whenever you go,

I'LL BE THERE ALSO

Precious Memories

Honoring Dianne's Life

Dianne Tate Norman, age 66, transitioned from earth to glory Wednesday, August 5, 2020 at her home in Elberton, Georgia surrounded by her children, grandchildren, family and friends. Dianne was born July 17, 1954 to the late Glenn Tate, Sr. and the late Mattie Tate of Elberton, Georgia; she was the youngest daughter of eleven siblings.

Dianne was a bright woman and a lifelong learner; after working for years in the textile industry, she went on to complete her formal education at Athens Technical College where she received her diploma in Criminal Justice. After completing Athens Technical College, Dianne went to work at Petersburg Towers until her health declined. She accepted Christ at a very young age and became a member of Cade's Chapel Baptist Church. Dianne was known for her straight forwardness and candor; one of her favorite sayings was "Don't add nothing to it and don't take nothing away." Dianne was always willing to help where she could. She had a kind, warm, thoughtful and loving spirit; her presence will be missed.

Dianne was preceded in death by her husband, Arthur Norman and her siblings, Reverend Lewis Tate Duboise, Florida Beatrice Tate, Dorothy Mae Blackwell, Glenn Tate, Jr. and Geraldine Cleveland.

Dianne was a loving mother, grandmother, in-law, auntie, cousin and close friend to those that knew her. Dianne had three children, who she leaves to cherish her memories, Garvin Tate of Pennsylvania, Chiquita (Steve) Smith of Lawrenceville, Georgia and Maneika Norman of Elberton, Georgia; seven grandchildren, Rubiera Smith, Madelyn Smith, Joshua Allen, Kylea Tate, Asia Smith and Landon Smith and one great grandchild, Aubrey Ardister.

Dianne is also survived by five brothers, Joe Bennie (Evelyn) Tate of Orlando, Florida, Lera (Donna) Tate of Stone Mountain, Georgia, William Henry (Deckrise) Tate of Conley, Georgia, James Ira (Elizabeth) Tate and Mitchell Tate of Elberton, Georgia; brothers-in-law, Leonard Blackwell of Decatur, Georgia, Joseph (Mamie) Norman and Charlie (Juanita) Norman of Tignall, Georgia; sisters-in-law, Joanne (Darrell) Moody and Pauline (Ethien) Fahie' of Atlanta, Georgia; one aunt, Annie Sue Tate of Elberton, Georgia; one special cousin that was like a sister, Thelma Barnett; along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
