Obituary

“So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you, I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.” Isaiah 41:10

A home going celebration is not a time of sadness; but a time of rejoicing. To be absent from the body is to be present with God. A home going is a time of reflection; to remember the time we were allowed to spend with our loved one. A home going celebration is a time of peace. For Jesus said, “come unto me those that are heavy laden and I will give you rest.”

We celebrate the home going of Mr. Tyrone “Early” Bowman who was a devoted son, step father, husband, uncle and brother. On February 10th, 2021, God softly spoke his name and dispatched an angel to receive another one of his own to come home. At his job, Tyrone accepted the Master’s call and he went to be with him; to suffer in this world no longer. There was no pain or sorrow in this acceptance, only love and peace. He will get the chance to now meet his Savior face to face. So we will keep this celebration close to our hearts as we rejoice, reflect, and remember the time we had with our “Early.” Now take your rest, “Early,” until we meet again on the other side. We love you!

Tyrone was preceded in death by his grandmothers, grandfathers, step son, uncles, and brothers-in-law. Tyrone leaves to cherish his memories, his wife, Vickie Evans of Elberton, GA; his mother, Mary(Douglas) Beasley of Elberton, GA; his father, Johnny (Peggy) Brawner of Elberton, GA; his stepchildren, Terence (Shayla) Evans & Travis Evans; his brother, Marcus (Sherika) Boyd; his sisters, Latasha Bowman, Otisia Brawner; his mother and father-in-law, Dorothy and Henry Evans; brothers-in-law, Tony Evans, Russell (Davasia) Evans, Kourtney Evans, Rick (Diane) Dye; Terrance (Crystal) Hester; sisters-in-law, Jackie (O.D.) Burton, Terra Hester, Tangelia Blackman, Veronica Calhoun; a host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews and family and friends.
