

A Letter From Heaven

When tomorrow starts without me and I'm not there to see;
If the sun should rise and find your eyes all filled with tears for me.

I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today;
While thinking of the many things we didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me as much as I love you;
And each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too.

When tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart
For every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.

Montague, Jr.

November 10, 1941

June 13, 2022

James Wilson Montague, Jr., age 80, resident of Somerville, Tennessee and husband of Janis Boling Montague, departed this life Monday evening, June 13, 2022 at Baptist Memorial Hospital in Memphis.

James was born November 10, 1941 in Somerville, the son of the late James Wilson Montague, Sr. and Wilma Matheson Montague. He graduated from Fayette County High School in 1959 and served his country in the Tennessee National Guard. He was married to Janis Boling Montague on November 21, 1965 and was a member of Somerville Church of Christ. James was a farmer for many years before his retirement and he enjoyed riding tractors and watching westerns and MMA fighting. Known to his family as PawPaw, he loved spending time with his family.

Mr. Montague is survived by his wife of almost 57 years, Janis Montague; four daughters, Jamie Taylor (Brandon Tassin), Joyce Anschultz (Chris), Janet Hunt (Joel) and Julie Sullivan (Michael); two sisters, Joan Springer (Murry) and Denise White (Randy); his brother, Billy Montague (Terresa); nine grandchildren, Danielle Matheny (Ryan), Wilson Ashmore (Gabrielle), Mackenzie Bennett (Blake), Jessica Anschultz, Harleigh Fortner (Nick), Emily Hunt, Caroline Hunt, Katie Lynn Branch and Jake Smith; and five great-grandchildren, Eli and Reese Matheny, Presley and Rylee Fortner and Weston Ashmore. He is also survived by his dog, Bo.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his sister, Peggy Montague.

The family requests that memorials be directed to Somerville Church of Christ, 15925 U.S. Highway 64, Somerville, TN 38068.

Condolences may be left on our online guestbook at
