

Fill not your hearts with pain and sorrow,
But remember me in every tomorrow.

Remember the joy, the laughter, the smiles,

I've only gone to rest a while.

Although my leaving causes pain and grief,
My going has eased my hurt and given me relief.

So dry your eyes and remember me,

Not as I am, but as I used to be.
Because I will remember you all

and look on with a smile.

Understand in your hearts,
I've only gone to rest a little while.
As long as I have the love of each of you,

I can live my life in the hearts of all of you.

June 2, 2018

Bruce Edwin Hudspeth, age 64, resident of Los Alamos, New Mexico, passed away on June 2, 2018 in Los Alamos.

Bruce was born in Memphis, Tennessee to Wade and Annie Hudspeth on July 2, 1953. He graduated from Memphis State University. At retirement, he was a Project Manager at Los Alamos National Laboratory. He enjoyed gardening in his spare time and was involved in the local Los Alamos Airport as an aviation enthusiast and pilot.

Bruce was preceded in death by his parents and is survived by his wife, Virginia C. Rey; two sons, Brent Hudspeth and wife, Katherine, Brett Hudspeth; and his brother, Steve Hudspeth and wife, Freda.

If I rise on the Wings
of the dawn,
If I settle on the far side of the sea,
Even there your
hand will guide me,
Your right hand will hold me fast.

- Psalm 139:9-10
