In Memory Of Robert Halt
"Bobby" Tapp, Sr.

January 18, 1931
April 29, 2019

Robert Holt "Bobby" Tapp, Sr., age 88, resident of Mason, Tennessee and husband of Magadaline Tapp, departed this life Monday afternoon, April 29, 2019 at his home.

Bobby was born January 18, 1931 in Mason, Tennessee, the son of the late Joseph Nimrod Tapp and Zera Holt Tapp. He was a graduate of Fayette County High School Class of 1949 and a lifelong resident of the Mason area. He was married September 18, 1954 to the former Magadaline Walker, who survives, and was a member of Oak Grove United Methodist Church. He was a very creative and innovative person throughout his life and one of his creations that he enjoyed operating was combining a road grater and dirt pan to build roads and terraces on farmland, which was featured in Farm Show magazine. He loved socializing with his family and friends and playing cards.

Bobby was a second-generation farmer and father to the third-generation. He was a partner at Drexel's Restaurant and the owner of Farm T Market and Allied Parts and Supplies, all in Somerville. He was a Founding Father of Fayette Academy and continued serving as a Board Member until 1979. Bobby was a member of the Somerville Country Club and Moose Lodge. A bridge between Somerville and Mason was dedicated to him on April 23, 2017.

Mr. Tapp is survived by his wife of 64 years, Magadaline Tapp of Mason, TN; his daughter, Betty Ann Moore (Fred) of Decaturville, TN; two sons, Robert "Holt" Tapp, Jr. (Lisa) of Braden, TN, Randal Tapp (B.J.) of Mason, Tn; his sister, Olivia Hathaway (Carmen) of Bartlett, TN; four grandchildren, Bridget Evans (Bradley), Joanne Tapp, Janet Tapp, Robert K. Tapp; and two great-grandchildren, Katelyn Evans and Breyden Evans.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by four sisters, Virginia Morris, Elizabeth Scott, Lucille Pattat, Mabel Pattat; five brothers, Howell Tapp, Fred Tapp, Franklin Tapp, Richard Tapp, Lewis Taylor Tapp; and his granddaughter, Rachael Moore.

The family requests that, in lieu of flowers, memorials be directed to St. Jude Memorial Giving, 501 St. Jude Place, Memphis, TN 38105-9959.

Condolences may be left on our online guestbook at
