

If you love something, love it completely,
cherish it, say it, but most importantly, show it.

Life is finite and fragile, and just because something is there for one day, it might not be the next.
Never take that for granted.

Say what you need to say, then say a little more.
Say too much. Show too much. Love too much.
Everything is temporary but love. Love outlives us all.

Richard Cardwell Landers, Sr., age 73, resident of Somerville, Tennessee and husband of Kerry Landers, departed this life Thursday morning, January 16, 2020 at Methodist LeBonheur Germantown Hospital.

Richard was born February 27, 1946 in Richmond, Virginia, the son of the late Richard Thomas Landers and Lucy Stone Atkinson Landers. He received his education in Richmond and served his country in the United States Marine Corps during the Vietnam War period. He was employed as a roofing consultant for many years and retired from the John J. Campbell Company in 2011. Richard was a resident of Somerville since 1999 and was married November 15, 2000 to Kerry Gowan. A favorite pastime was woodworking.

Mr. Landers is survived by his wife, Kerry Landers of Somerville, TN; two sons, Richard C. Landers, Jr. of Cordova, TN, Adam Landers (Lindsey) of Hernando, MS; and three grandchildren, Danielle Landers, Camden Landers and Jett Landers.

Condolences may be left on our online guestbook at www.PeeblesFuneralHome.com.
