Glenn Alan Crane, 58, resident of McAllen, Texas and service manager for Desperado Harley Davidson, passed away on January 18th, 2021. Mr. Crane served in the United States Air Force from 1987 to 1991, most notably during the Panamanian Conflict, and Operations Desert Shield/Storm. He went on to become an accomplished service manager with over 25 years experience with Harley Davidson.

He was an avid outdoorsman and thrill-seeker, who enjoyed hunting, fishing, and motorcycle racing. One of his most recent ambitions was to take his drag bike to the Bonneville Salt Flats and attempt to reach 200mph.
