

In Loving Memory of a Special Little One

I have so much love for you, my precious little one You have left behind such sorrow now that you are sadly gone

Now you sleep in heaven and the angels watch you play My thoughts are always with you,
I miss you every day

Why were you taken early?
It's so terribly unfair
The love you left behind lives on but the pain is still hard to bear

My heart is truly broken your life was tragically cut so short But I will always be so grateful for the happiness you brought Karma Allen-Marie Dawn Oakley, six months and two days old daughter of James and Amber Oakley of Covington, Tennessee, departed this life Saturday, January 30, 2021 at Baptist Memorial Hospital in Covington.

Karma was born July 28, 2020 in Memphis, Tennessee and is survived by her parents, James and Amber Dawn Oakley; her maternal grandparents, Don and Linda Haas; her sister, Elizabeth Ann Banks; and two brothers, Chesley Clyde Munke and Mikeal James Banks.

The family requests that memorials be directed to SIDS / First Candle at <http://www.charities.org/charities/first-candle>.

Condolences may be left on our online guestbook at www.PeeblesFuneralHome.com.

When God calls little children to dwell with Him above, We mortals sometime question the Wisdom of His love.
For no heartache compares with the death of one small child, Who does so much to make our world seem wonderful and mild.
Perhaps God tires of calling the aged to His fold
So He picks a little rosebud before it can grow old.
To make the land of heaven
more beautiful to view.
Believing this is difficult, till somehow we must try.
The saddest word a loved-one knows will always be "GOOD BYE."
So when a little child departs, we who are left behind, Must realize GOD LOVES CHILDREN,
Angels are hard to find.
