

Honoring
THE LIFE OF OUR BELOVED

But Not Forgotten

I think, no matter where you stray,
That I shall go with you a way.
Though you may wander sweeter lands,
You will not soon forget my hands,
Nor yet the way I held my head,
Nor all the tremulous things I said.
You still will see me, small and white
And smiling, in the secret night,
And feel my arms about you when
The day comes fluttering back again.
I think, no matter where you be,
You'll hold me in your memory
And keep my image, there without me,
By telling later loves about me.

A Mother's Love

We'll always remember
That special smile,
That caring heart,
That warm embrace,
You always gave us.
You being there
For Mom and us
Through good and bad times,
No matter what.
We'll always remember
You Dad because
They'll never be another one
To replace you in our hearts,
And the love we will always
Have for you.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS
A friendly smile, A casual touch,
These are the things that mean so much.
To know you are with us in our time of sorrow,
Sharing our prayers, Today and tomorrow.
God gives us comfort in the form of good friends,
May His peace be with you, His love never ends.

Her Story

A LIFE WELL LOVED

Sharnnie Maria Wilson Ware was born to the late Emma Ware of Dothan, Alabama and Bobby Ware of Lake Wales, Florida on December 17, 1958.

Sharniel (Shon) was a wonderful person to her 9 siblings. They loved her and she loved them so much. She would do anything for anybody. She was the light in dark places and was loved by many people. Shan had many talents. She loved to dance, sing (especially at the Mardi Casino which she visited in her spare time), write songs, sew, and model. She was as good as gold.

Shan was a mother of two sons, Kendrick Davis who preceded her in death, and Devon Wilson. She was also a grandmother to four, Kiria, Courtney, Kylei and King. She had a host of nieces, nephews and other family members. Shan was a sweet soul and will be missed.

TAKE YOUR REST,
Shan,
UNTIL WE ALL MEET AGAIN.
