

*To my Grandmother,
I Love You!*

I loved when my Grandma always called to check up on me.

Now you have taken your wings to rest,
there is no more pain and suffering.

Now I cry tears of joy because you are free Grandma and I know you will always watch over all your grandchildren.

We love you Grandma and we will miss you dearly!
Rest Grandma, you are now free.

*Love Always,
Travis Stubbs, Jr.*

Her Story

A LIFE WELL LIVED

Brenda Joyce Stubbs was born on February 3, 1955, in Miami, FL to the late Luther and Wilma Stubbs. Brenda is the 4th of 5 children born to this union. She was the last of her siblings (Luther Stubbs, Albertha Johnson, Johnny Stubbs, and Kenneth Stubbs) to survive.

Brenda matriculated through Miami-Dade County Public Schools. She graduated from Miami Jackson Senior High School in 1973. Once she completed high school, she had her first child, Omar Stubbs, and worked as an Armed Security Guard on Dodge Island in the City of Miami. Later, Brenda gave birth to 2 more beautiful sons, Na'il Mathis and Travis Stubbs. She was a devoted mother who raised her sons in the fear and admonition of the Lord.

Brenda was a beautiful and attractive woman who possessed an extraordinary personality. She later met her longtime companion, James T. Howard, who preceded her in death on January 30, 2022. James T. "J.J." Howard, Jr. was born to their union and preceded them in death in 2017.

Brenda loved children and began a longstanding career in Early Childhood Development and Education. She attended the Carrie P. Meek Entrepreneurial Education Center at Miami-Dade College and studied Early Childhood Development and Education. Soon after, she volunteered at the Bethune Head Start. Her love for children blossomed and she exemplified an incredible talent in working with them. As a result, the Community Action Agency (CAA) employed her, and she worked at various Head Start programs in the City of Miami for over 12 years. After an extensive career, she retired and continued to make an indelible impression in the lives of the children, parents, and staff that she served. Many called her "Mom" and boasted about the impact that she made in their lives.

Brenda lived a fruitful and productive life despite her ailments. She joined New World Pentecostal Ministries, Inc. in 2012 and enjoyed praising and worshipping her Lord and Savior at services. Her love for family and friends was radiant. She enjoyed cooking, hosting gatherings, sports, and sending inspirational text messages to family and friends each day. She was very supportive and helped many people who were in need.
