"A NEW GENERATION OF QUALITY"

He attended schools in both Broward and Dade Counties including Chester A. Moore, Lanier Jr. High, and Miami Northwestern High School.

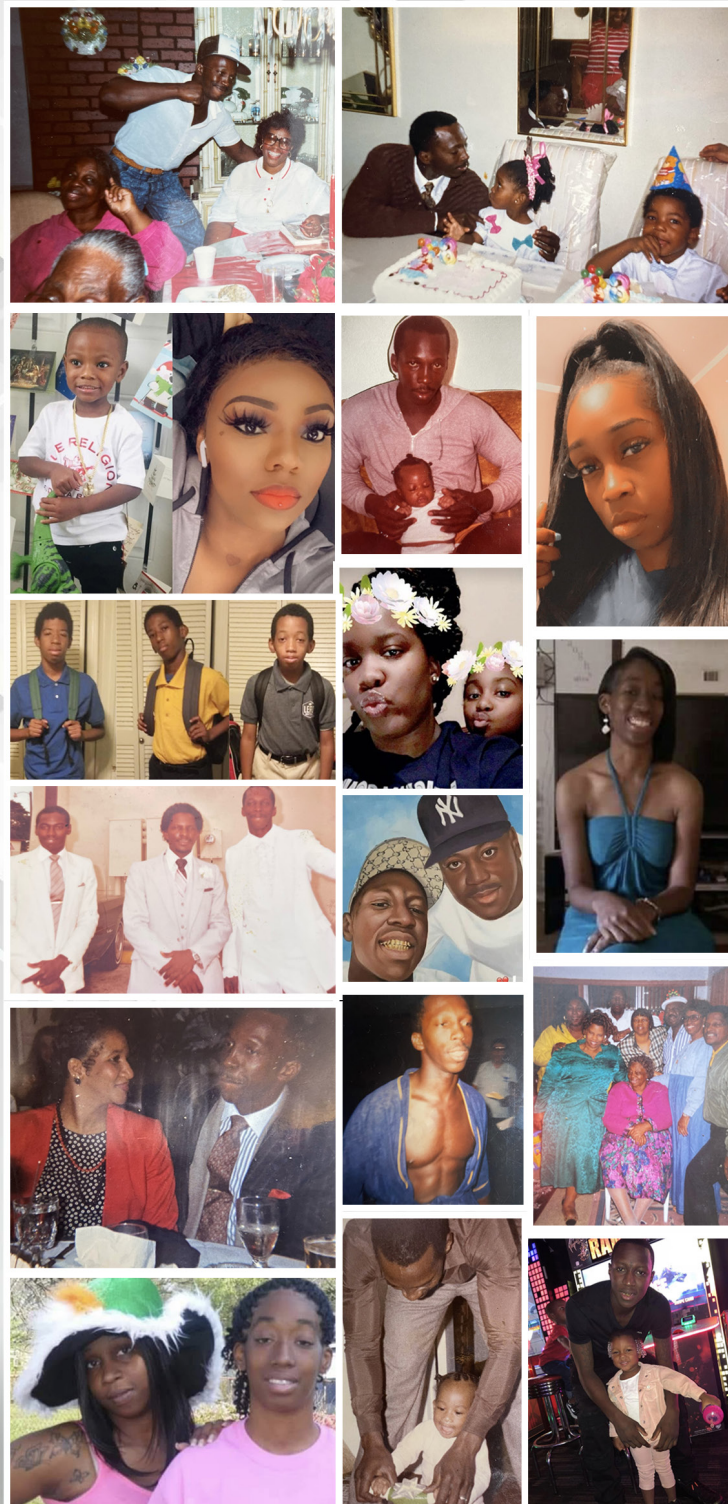

To know Rick is to love him. He was admired and loved and respected by many who came in contact with him. His presence will be sadly missed by his entire family, friends and buddies from the entire Hallandale and West Park community.

He loved boxing. His boxing name was “Cowboy Brown” and he had a passion for it. He was a jack of all trades and could paint, yard work, graphics, and sign work. He loved for his sister to Cook FOR him.

He loved to Attend Higher Vision Ministry under PastoR, Anthony Sanders and visited various churches. He enjoyed Bible Study and could pray and quote Scriptures. He had a big HEART for God's people.

On June 20th, he departed this life quietly and peacefully the same way he lived. Sleep on our beloved Brother and take your rest. We all love you dearly, but God loves you best.
