

Asleep

*I've closed my eyes and fallen asleep,
So there's no reason for you to weep;
This is a debt we all must pay,
You will see me again someday.
I've endured pain and sometimes sorrow,
Now I don't have to worry about tomorrow.
But life for you must go on,
You must not worry because I'm gone.
You stood beside me all the way,
When I was down, you knew what to say ...
You always told me, "get some rest,"
Let me sleep now, I've done my best.
So please let me rest in peace,
The tears you're shedding soon will cease.
You'll soon realize this was meant to be, I thank God because He came for me.*

HER LIFE STORY

Doreen Delethy Bennett-Scully was born into the earthly realm on April 15, 1948 and she departed to the heavenly realm on January 16, 2023. She lived a life focused on determination, courage, prosperity, and love.

Her life was dedicated to enhancing and making everyone she loved become the best version of themselves. She married Lascell Scully and helped him evolve from his humble beginnings in a small town in Jamaica to a highly successful self-employed carpenter and home builder.

With just a high school education, she molded her son into a gifted elementary and middle school student, an engineering magnet scholar that graduated third in his class and a graduate from Georgia Tech (one of the top engineering schools in the nation) with High Honors.

She excelled when she worked in the corporate world and when she decided to take on the task of raising her son the way she wanted, she did it with all of her heart and soul. She was a pivotal force in building and running the family business. From running the finances, operating tools and painting to help get jobs done, as well as providing guidance on which jobs to take and how to complete them.

There was not a task that she took on that she did not put her full heart into and excelled in accomplishing. Anyone that knows Doreen knows she was driven by the word of the Lord and lived her life dedicated to learning and sharing the teachings of the Bible. The Lord guided her on her life journey, helped forge how she interacted and helped build up those around her. Now that she has given it her all, has accomplished so much and has touched and inspired so many, she gets to rest in His heavenly kingdom, knowing that the mark she left on this earthly world is bigger than she could have ever imagined.

She was preceded in death by her mother Martha Thomas-Bennett, her father Leonard Bennett, her sisters Avis Bennett, Yvette Bennett, and her brothers Beresford Bennett, Devon Bennett and Elvis Bennett.

She leaves behind on earth: her husband Lascell George Scully, her son Stuart St. Christopher Scully, her sisters June Bennett, Ancharb Bennett-Brown, and Ingrid Bennett-Love, and her brother Errol Bennett along with multiple nieces, nephews, family and friends.

"God grant me the Serenity to accept the things I cannot change, the courage to change the things I can, and the wisdom to know the difference."
