

The Plan of the Master Weaver

*Our lives are but fine weavings
That God and we prepare
Each life becomes a fabric planned
And fashioned in His care ...
We may not always see just how
The weavings intertwine,
But we must trust the Master's hand
And follow His design
For He can view the pattern
Upon the upper side.
While we must look from underneath
And trust in Him to guide.
Sometimes a strand of sorrow
Is added to His plan.
And though it's difficult for us,
We still must understand
That it's He who fills the shuttle.
It's He who know what's best.
So, we must weave in patience
And leave to Him the rest...
Not till the loom is silent
And the shuttles cease to fly
Shall God unroll the canvas,
And explain the reason why ...
The dark threads are as needed
In the Weaver's skillful hand
As the threads of gold and silver
In the patterns He has planned.*

Obituary

Kavin Ware was born on July 3, 1956, in Savannah, Georgia, to the late Mary Etta Ware and Henry Bradshaw.

Kavin attended public school in Savannah, Georgia, but relocated to Miami, Florida, in 1965. He graduated as a Mighty Red Raider from Miami Edison Senior High School in 1974. Kavin accepted Christ into his life at an early age, and was a devoted member of New Shiloh Missionary Baptist Church. He later became a member of Antioch Missionary Baptist Church.

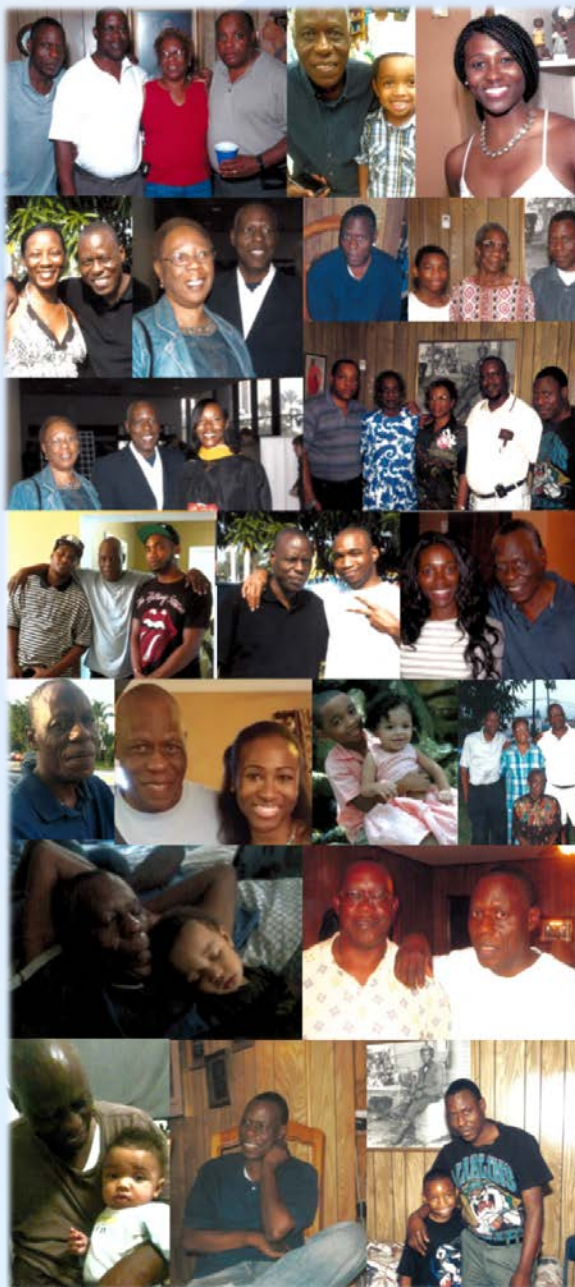

Kavin will be remembered as a hard-working, fun-loving person. Kavin maintained several jobs at once. Some of his most memorable places of employment were at: Pantry Pride, Smart & Final, and Southeast Bank. He ended his professional career as a self-employed Process Server. During his lifetime, he gave generously and unselfishly, for he loved people and enjoyed helping whenever he could. He was known for his robust laughter, innocent pranks, and die-hard dedication to his two favorite sports teams, the Miami Dolphins and Miami Heat. To be in his presence was to be in the midst of laughter, jokes, and fun.

On January 31, 2018, Kavin lost his battle with Cancer and departed this life. He lovingly leaves a reflection of his life in the hearts of his family and friends who loved him dearly and will truly miss him.

He leaves to cherish him: his son, Kalan Nesbitt; grandchildren, Kalon and Makayla; adopted son, Maurice Avery Baxter; siblings, Angelon Blash, Bernard Ware (Orie), and Mara Ware; nieces, Pamela Jenks (Alfred) and Natasha Thomas; nephew, Willie Thomas (SaNora); dear friends, Sandra Nesbitt and Bobbie Smith; and a host of grandnieces, grandnephews, cousins, other relatives and sorrowing friends.

*When loved ones go ahead of us, it's hard to say, "Goodbye."
And in our grief and sorrows, we are tempted to ask, "Why?"
But they have found the peace and joy, this world can never give,
And in God's heavenly home, it's they, not we, who truly live.*
