

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me,
And I'm not there to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me.

I wish so much that you wouldn't cry
The way you did today,
While thinking of the many things
We didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me,
As much as I love you,
And each time that you think of me,
I know you'll miss me, too.

But when tomorrow starts without me,
Please try to understand,
That an angel came and called my name
And took me by the hand.

They said my place was ready,
In Heaven far above,
And that I'd have to leave behind
All those I dearly love.

Obituary

Mr. Herbert Bryant, Sr., affectionately known as “Daddy,” departed this life on February 21, 2021, late Sunday evening. He was the youngest child born to the union of the late James Bryant and Lille Brown Bryant, whom exceeded him in death, including all of his siblings. Oliver Bryant (Edwina) of Savannah, GA, Peter Bryant of Savannah, GA, Percy Bryant of Savannah, GA, Hannah Bryant of Savannah, GA, James Bryant of Savannah, GA, Florence Bryant Greene of Orlando, FL, and Elsie Bryant Gerald of Savannah, GA.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his beloved wife, Mae Will Lowe Bryant of Opa-Locka, FL, of 70 years; three daughters, Brenda Bryant Coley (William) of Albany, GA, Lusendra Bryant of Houston, TX, and Janice Bryant Laughlin (Charlie) of Atlanta, GA; three sons, Herbert Bryant, Jr. (Theodora), of Miramar, FL, Eric Bryant of Miramar, FL, and Christopher Bryant (Lorraine) of Miami, FL; and a host of grands and great-grands, nieces, and nephews, whom affectionately referred to him as “Uncle Herb.”

In his earlier years in life, he was known for being a faithful member of the Mount Zion Baptist Church of Miami, FL, where he was a member of the adult choir. One of his favorite hymns loved so dearly was “A Charge to Keep I Have.” He loved to be around his children as they enjoyed being a part of whatever activities were going on at the time. He would always say “I’m not old yet, I feel as good as you do,” lol, now as were looking back across the years, we’ve come to realize that we were fortunate to have him as a father whom took pride in taking care of his family.

We’ll miss you daddy, we’ll see you again. Rest for a while now, as we will remember you as you watch over us.

Your loving wife & children
