Order of Service

Memphis Logan was born October 22, 1946 to the late Booker T and Ruth Logan in Rutherford County. He leaves behind his wife of 53 years, Evonnie Ree Shade Logan and two children: Vera (Evette) Logan and Thomas Joseph Logan. He was preceded in death by his two sons, Marcus Lee Logan and Richard Lee Logan as well as many brothers and sisters; and one remaining sibling, Linda Logan, a host of nieces and nephews, cousins, aunts and uncles; four grandchildren, Christina Evette Austin, Marcus Lee Greene, Richard Christopher Logan and Zachery Logan.

Memphis was a graduate of Carver High School Class of 1966. He was awarded a full athletic scholarship and used it to earn an Associate of Applied Science Degree. He retired from Rutherford County Schools in 2011. Memphis became a faithful servant of Jehovah God and served faithfully until his death. He served as a full –time minister , helping the community come to know our God Jehovah Matthew 28:19,20; Psalm 83:18. He dearly loved his wife and children. There was nothing he would not do for them. He was a strong but yet gentle and kind, proud man. He held his head high through the good and bad times. He loved his God Jehovah.

Memphis, My Endless Love 53 years

Our love was unconditional , unbreakable, enduring; There was no one like Memphis, giving, loving, kind, He was always there for me and I for him. I will keep a part of him with me and everywhere I go, there he will be. I thank Jehovah God for the time I had with him. I will hold his memory safe in my heart and my heart will go on, until we meet again in the New world (Rev. 21:3-7). To you my love, “Go Take Your Rest. Take your gentle happiness far too beautiful for this world, your memory will go to Jehovah, rest until you hear Jehovah call your name at that time you will get up to a new world peace, forever, you will have.

Closing Prayer.....Brother Denny

1. Life, like a mist, appears for just a day,
Then disappears tomorrow.
All that we are can quickly fade away,
Replaced with tears and sorrow.
If a man should die, can he live again?
Hear the promise God has made:
(CHORUS)
He will call; The dead will answer.
They will live at his command.
For he will have a longing
For the work of his own hand.
So have faith, and do not wonder,
For our God can make us stand.
And we will live forever,
As the work of his own hand
2. Friends of our God, though they may pass away,
Will never be forsaken.
All those asleep who in God’s mem’ry stay,
From death he will awaken.
Then we’ll come to see all that life can be:
Paradise eternally.
(CHORUS)
He will call; The dead will answer.
They will live at his command.
For he will have a longing
For the work of his own hand.
So have faith, and do not wonder,
For our God can make us stand.
And we will live forever,
As the work of his own hand
