Reflections of a Beautiful Life...

"Enjoy the little things in life, for one day you may look back and realize they were the big things."

That was what he believed! That was what he stood on!

Clinton L. White Jr. Was born to Clinton L. White Sr. and Margaret A. White on March 3, 1972 in Fayetteville North Carolina. After his father retired from the military their family moved to Raleigh North Carolina in the 1980's where he continued school and enjoyed playing football at Broughton High School. As a young man Clinton traveled to many states and resided in Buffalo New York for some time before returning to Raleigh, NC.

Clinton who went by Clint, his family called him Junior but his mother called him J-R. He was a special person of interest with a big heart and a lot of character. In his world, he was the Hulk; his favorite superhero. He was most definitely the superhero in our world in so many ways. In addition to loving football, Junior loved to draw, cook and play video games with his nephew Brandon. He was a huge Marvel, D.C. Comic and anything Transformer fan. More importantly he loved to make everyone smile. His laugh was infectious, and he encouraged everyone that he knew to enjoy life. He continued to lift everyone's spirits as he became a key caretaker for his father in his time of need while working at the Holiday Inn Express. Junior remains a pillar of strength for his family.

Clinton leaves to cherish his loving memories to his parents, Clinton and Margaret White of Raleigh NC; siblings Tewanna White Sanders (Emmanuel) of Raleigh, NC, Keiran White of Raleigh, NC, Charles Anderson of Little Rock, AR, Clinton L. White of Little Rock, AR, Rashina Fisher Stephens (Cres) of Raleigh, NC, and Rashad Fisher Jones of Alexandria, VA; Nephews Demetrius, Deandre, Brandon and Emmanuel II, niece India Bullock of Little Rock, AR and a host of extended family and loved ones.

Preceding him in death are his grandparents, Jethro and Josephine Fisher and grandparents Clinton L. Rayford and Martha Young, aunts, Deborah Fisher, Clara Fisher and Ella Fisher, Uncle Robert Fisher.

The Plan of The Master Weaver

Our lives are but fine weavings
That God and we prepare
Each life becomes a fabric planned
And fashioned in His care.
We may not always see just how
The weaving intertwine.
But we must trust the Master's hand
And follow his design,
For he can view the pattern
Upon the upper side,
While we must look from underneath
And trust in Him to guide.

"Earth, birthplace of the human race, a species much like our own, capable of great companion, and great violence. For in our quest to protect the humans, a deeper revaluation dawns, our worlds have met before."

~ Optimus Prime
