Obituary

On April 14, 2019, our beloved Delaun Cortez Parker (Bam Bam) gained his wings. Delaun was born on April 11, 1988 at Cape Fear Valley Medical Center to the late Francesca Parker and Kitric Reeves SR. Delaun is preceded by his grandmother Beulah Parker and grandfather Robert “Rabbit” Monroe

Delaun leaves behind his loving fiancé Kenyatta Elliott; three sons Delaun “DJ” Parker-Elliott JR (10), Keshawn Parker-Elliott (7), Avion Parker-Elliott (1); one daughter Jaysha Mahorn (12); five sisters Tyeihsha Williams Robinson (Jamale), Shaquondra Reeves, Jasmine Williams, Shaina Clark, Mary Dancy; three brothers Kitric Reeves JR, Alphonzo “CJ” Clark JR, Damonta “B” Elliott; four aunts Valistina Smith, Gal Epps, Regina Bordeaux (Wayne), Tina Elliott; one uncle James Elliott; mother and father in law Bertha Clark, Alphonzo Clark SR; Charlie’s Angels Casheca Parker Lloyd (Jacoby), Samesha Minter; a host of cousins, nieces, nephews; 2 best friends Darius “lil D”, Mike.

Delaun “Bam Bam” was a loving, humble, caring, and funny man. He loved life and lived it to the fullest. As a child he loved to go fishing with his grandfather. He loved to rap and always kept a smile on his face. His favorite word was “honestly”. He loved his family more than anything. He was stolen from us in the middle of the night without being able to say goodbye. We love you very much and will continue to keep your memory alive.

My dad, it’s so hard with you not being here. I think about you every night even in my dreams. Sometimes I hear things around the house that must be you. You know I miss you and I know you miss us. I miss you every day Dad. I will take your place; just leave it in my hands. I will take care of everything.

~ I love you Dad - DJ ~

My dad was the bright side of my life. He made sure every night that every door and window was locked in the house. He made our life easier. He filled in all of the cracks of my life. Day and night I think of when we play games and have fun. Dad I will love you till I leave this earth. He kept me standing when I was falling down, he kept me tall when I was feeling small. I know when I think about him he thinks about me back. I love my Dad from the bottom of my heart and my daddy getting killed is the worst tragedy in my life and I’m gonna miss him getting me ready in the morning. ~ Love you dad – Keshawn ~

Recessional

On April 14, 2019 half of my heart was ripped out of me. My right hand was chopped off. I can’t find the words to describe this pain. We did everything together, which makes this much harder. I lay at night staring at the ceiling remember all of the moments we have shared rather good/bad no matter what you was always there. Now you are gone and it’s too much to handle as I have always had you to lean on. We always held each other up. I promise to love you for the rest of my life, I will keep your memory and legacy alive thru our children and I will meet you in Heaven my love where we will pick up where we left off. I love you dearly and miss you so much. Even death can’t separate us. Love always your BM, wife, Best friend, and soul mate. ~ Kenyatta ~

Cousin Love

It’s so hard to say goodbye to the one cousin who was by my side. The last time I saw you, you had a smile on your face and that special smile will never be replaced. Alone I sit and think of you at night crying wishing this wasn’t true. Your body may be silent but your soul is set free. You are living in our hearts now and that is where you will always be. ~ Lil Cuz, Destinie ~

The Broken Chain

We never knew the day that GOD was going to call your name. In life we loved you dearly, In death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you but you didn’t go alone. For part of us went with you the day GOD called you home. You left us peaceful memories. Your love is still our guide, and though we cannot see you, you are always at our side. Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same, but as GOD calls us one by one the chain will link again.
