Favorite Scripture
2 Timothy 4:6-8

For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

Obituary

Our beloved, Alan Romane Miner, the father of four beautiful daughters and one of four children, known as the baby son of Diana Freeman Miner and Albert Miner grew up in Brooklyn, NY in the community of Brownsville. As a child he was taught by The House of Prayer for All People, later attended Full Gospel Deliverance Church of Fayetteville, NC. Allan rededicated his life to Christ at In His Name Intercessory Prayer Church under the teaching of Apostle Kim and Pastor Johnny Balthrop. He was well known by many as a well-mannered and humbled man. Alan loved sports, hanging out with friends and family after a hard day's work. Alan was a selfless person that always put people first no matter who they were. He also attended South Shore High School and worked various jobs in the furniture industry just like his brother and late father. As an entrepreneur Alan started his own business and serviced the furniture industry.

As a man of God, he loved teaching the Word of God to all that would listen. Teaching the word and exploring the history of the Bible was very personal and he never took it lightly. God was his everything and making sure that he taught his daughters the word of God was essential to their foundation in life.

Two of Alan's favorites quotes were "Ma, you heard me?" and to his sister "Kimmy, I'm A Man" with the most sincere look in his eyes.

Alan moved to Marietta, GA and decided to make Georgia his home, working tirelessly to provide for his family found himself only two years ago to fight the battle of Cancer. Realizing he needed support he later returned home to Fayetteville, NC, where his mother and oldest sister and brother in law currently live. There he received further treatment for his illness and lived out his final days surrounded by his daughters, grandson and family until the Lord took him home. Now he is resting in the spiritual realm with his family and our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. John 14: 1-4, 2 Corinthians 5:1-10

Poem

Don't Cry, Family Don't Cry

I'm going where the rainbows glows and the clouds will never cry.

*Don't cry for me. I am okay.
Heaven is now my home,
and this is where I'll stay.*

*Don't cry for me.
I'm where I belong.
I want you to be happy

*Don't cry for me.
It was just my time,
but I will see you someday
on the other side.*

*Don't cry for me.
I am not alone.
The angels are with me
to welcome me home.*

*Don't cry for me,
for I have no fear.
All my pain is gone,
and Jesus took my tears.*

*Don't cry for me.
This is not the end.
I'll be waiting here for you*
