

My Dad

*A father's touch, a Daddy's kiss,
A grieving Daughter,
the Dad I will always miss,
An empty house, an empty chair,
A father's love, no longer there,
A broken heart, tear filled eye,
Another soul in the sky,
The times we shared,
The laughs we had,
Things I miss when I think of My Dad.*

*In Loving Memory

Obituary

WALTER HORNE JR.

Walter Horne Jr. was born in Atlanta, GA to the late Walter and Josephine Horne on June 20, 1952. On January 27, 2021, he peacefully entered into eternal life.

He was a product of the Buford City School System. After graduating, Walter enlisted into the U.S. Army. During his 22 years with the Army, he held several military positions. One of which was a mechanical supervisor. He also had several tours overseas. Walter was a part of the 67th Signal Battalion. He fought for his country during the Gulf War. In 1994, after serving his country, Walter retired from the U.S. Army with an honorary discharge. He became an independent maintenance contractor with Ranger-land.

After the passing of his mother, his aunt Eddie Mae Horne, gladly stepped in and raised him as her own son, along with her other children, Donna and Dexter Horne. In 1975, Walter married Joyce Mayfield. From this union they were blessed with one daughter, LaChanta.

Walter had several hobbies during his lifetime. After retiring, Walter began making decorative pillows. His two biggest hobbies were being a DJ and grillmaster. In Germany and Fort Jackson he was known for his DJ abilities. In Fayetteville, he was known as "The Ribman". He loved entertaining and grilling his famous ribs for his friends. His love for fast cars came later in life when he purchased his first Corvette.

He leaves to cherish his memories, his wife, Joyce Horne of Commerce, GA. His daughter, LaChanta Horne of Commerce, GA. His grandson, Kemanni Horne, Sister-in-law Barbara Flanagan (Willie) of Jefferson, GA, brother-in-law Rev. Jerry Davids (Jacqueline) of Monroe, GA, sister Donna Duncan (Mark) of Lawrenceville, GA, brother Dexter Horne (Shellie) of Oakwood, GA, special friend Lillian Williams of Fayetteville, NC. and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.
