

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day, to laugh,
To love, to work or play.
Tasks undone must stay that way
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah, yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savoured much
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and share with me,
God wants me now, He set me free.

The Obituary

Felton McKenzie was born to the late James Baldwin and Alice Taylor McKenzie in Marshallville, GA on August 16, 1941. He was immersed in the Christian community that would be his lifelong support from an early age and attended Glorious Hope Primitive Baptist Church faithfully. He attended the public schools of Macon County.

“Tony” was blessed with a large and loving family. He was married to the late Norma McKenzie for over 50 years, and was blessed with two children, the late Ronald “Bam” Jackson and Laquana McKenzie of Perry, GA.

“Busman” was a seasonal worker and traveled from state to state year-round. He was easy going and he love to joke, laugh, and have fun. “Baybro” had a dog that walked with him all the time. He will be dearly missed by his family and friends.

He was also preceded in death by five siblings, Oscar McKenzie, O.J. Jones, Hazel McKenzie, Grace McKenzie Paster and Susie A. Johnson.

Felton is survived by his children, Stanley Haslem, Vorris Stewart, and Laquana McKenzie; two devoted sisters, Bernice Howard, and Earlene Walters; a devoted and caring friend, Minnie Haslem; a devoted niece, Mary C. Harris; a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.

“Boss Man”

Special thanks to the Oaks Nursing Home and Staff of Marshallville Georgia for the love and support shown to our father, brother, and uncle “The Boss Man”, as they called him. May God continue to bless each of you.
