A WALK IN THE PAST

We will take a walk today My friend
We will start down Sherman's Lane.
We will cross Mineral Creek at the old Stone Bridge
All covered with Nature's Stair.
We will head up the hill on the old log road
Where in the Past we both have strode.
Through the trees to the Bluff
where Maquoketa River's flowing
And you won't have to look very hard
To see a lot of God a showing.
And if you would look at the azure sky
You might see a Buzzard on the Fly.
We have been here when the sun was up there in the Blue
We have been here when the storm gods were angry too.
But it matters not what the weathers' like
If you're in the mood for a nature's Hike.
You will find it all at Nature's Best
Where the Red Fox runs and the Eagles Nest.
There's a cave in the Bluff where we used to camp
Where you could sleep real dry when the weather's damp.
Then down the creek a little ways
The legend of Gold Nuggets of other days;
Then across the valley and away up high
Where it seems the tree tops reach the sky
Up there on a ledge near the top of the hill
Our old Friend run a moonshine still.
I'd like to sit in that cave with you in the fire's glow
Reminiscence the memories of days long ago.
Now when Gabriel Blows his Trumpet for me,
And my Body sets my spirit free
If you want to get in touch with me
You will find me there where the Wind Blows free.
