

Flower Bearers

Family and Friends

Pall Bearers

Family and Friends

Acknowledgment

The Whitted and Slaughter Families wishes to express their deepest gratitude and appreciation for the outpouring of love shown during the transition of our precious love one, Alexis. Words could never be expressed that would encompass how grateful we are for the outpouring of kindness that has been shown during this time. We ask that you continue to pray for us as we will do the same for you and your family.

Interment

Cool Springs Memorial Cemetery
Sale City, Georgia

Arrangements and Services by Professionals

SHIPP'S FUNERAL HOME
501 W. Willingham Street, P.O. Box 853
Sylvester, Georgia
Phone: 229.776.1355 – Fax: 229.776.1356
www.shippsfuneralhome.com

Honoring and Celebrating The Life and Memory of

Alexis Charmaine Whitted

July 12, 1995 ~ August 4, 2017

August 10, 2017
11:00 A.M.

New Vision Worship Center
614 North Madison Street
Sylvester, Georgia 31791
Reverend Jackie Banks, Eulogist

~ Obituary ~

*“The Lord Gave and the Lord has taken away.
Blessed be the name of the Lord”*

~ Job 1:21

ALEXIS CHARMANE WHITTED, affectionately known to many of her friends and family as “Ace,” was born July 12, 1995, at Fort Stewart, Georgia to Anthony Whitted and Cheryl Slaughter-Whitted. Even at birth her beautiful smile, kind and loving personality could be felt.

On Friday, August 4, 2017, in the calm of the early morning hours, Angels were dispensed to Alexis and her soul was carried from labor to reward.

Alexis understood the power of God and the importance of prayer. She was taught at a young age and encouraged to build a relationship with Christ.

Alexis graduated from Worth County High School in 2013. She went on to receive her certificate in Accounting from Southern Regional in Moultrie, Georgia. The retail industry was her current chosen profession as she pondered her next career move life. Though her life was shorten by our standards. Her impact that she had on so many lives will never be forgotten. God had a greater plan for our Angel.

Alexis was preceded in death by her maternal grandparents, Henry L. Slaughter and Eloise Slaughter.

Alexis love for life will be forever cherished and remembered by: her mother and father, Cheryl Slaughter-Whitted of Doerun, Georgia and Anthony Whitted (Irish), Clayton, North Carolina; her beloved sister and brother, Mignon Whitted of Houston, Texas and Alexander Whitted of Albany, Georgia; grandparents, Carl and Jossie Melvin-Whitted of Fayetteville, North Carolina; numerous uncles, aunts, cousins and life time friends.

From a mother to her daughter...

Alexis you were there through every rip and tear. You were there in many times of despair and in your own way I knew you cared and loved like an understanding daughter. You were bold. I used to tell you that you were swift and graceful as a cat. Now that you have gone I want you to know that I will always love and miss you each and every day. I am no longer worried because I know you are in a place that is beautiful and a place that is golden. You are seated high in the sky and you do not have to suffer, cry or fear anymore. Alexis, you will always be the spot between an everlasting unending dreams.

*I will love you always,
Mama*

From a father to his daughter:

No one could never understand a bond between a father and his daughter. A father’s desire for her to be successful and have everything she deserve in life. God saw fit that it was time for you to come home. Although it hurts and my heart is broken I know you are in a better place. Not the rising of the sun or the setting of the moon will go by that I will not think of you. I will always love you.

Daddy

From a sister to her sister:

It’s tragic and I know I will carry this for a long time. Because as big sister your supposed to protect the younger siblings. I feel like I failed you. My heart feels unbearable and I’m still in disbelief. I know you wouldn’t want me to dwell on “what if’s” but, I will always remember the last words we spoke. I just want you to know that I’m sorry and I will love you forever. Whether you knew it or not you always had half my heart and the other is Alex. Don’t worry I will make sure that he is ok. Rest easy and keep smiling beautiful. We will see each other again... until then I will carry you always, in my spirit, and in my heart.

Order of Service

Prelude

Selection

Invocation ..... Reverend Jackie Banks

Scriptures:

Old Testament

New Testament

Selection

Expressions

The Family..... Norman Whitted (Uncle)
(Please Limit Expressions to Two Minutes)

Eulogy ..... Reverend Jackie Banks

Selection

Recessional

Always loving you, Mignon

From a brother to his sister...

You always stayed by my side. You were the brightest light in the dark existence. Save me a seat and know that I will never forget you because you are, Unforgettable...oooooooouuuuu

Alex

From a best friend to her best friend...

Farewell my friend, you’re leaving us and one can only say it was time for you to go. Your friendship was a blessing and I will miss you so. We shared so many secrets. You brighten up my days. You brought me so much happiness with your kind and loving ways. You lifted up my spirits when I was feeling blue. Now that you’re gone I’m so lost without you. No matter what was happening you knew just what do. We ran between the raindrops and walked beneath the sun. We ran barefoot in the summertime and had tons of fun through all the ups and downs of life. The good times and the sad, from high school to golden years. You are the best friend I ever had. God is here to take you home – now you and I must part. I love you and forever you will live in my heart. I’ll see you soon Alexis.

Asia