Psalm 23

*The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
 He leadeth me beside the still waters.
 He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake.
 Yea, though I walk through the valley
 of the shadow of death,
 I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me;
 Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest
 my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
 all the days of my life:
 and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.*

An Angel Lived Among Us

“Gail “, as she was affectionately called by family and friends was educated in the public schools of Richland County where she attended Columbia High Adult Night School. She continued her education at Midlands Technical College and received as associate degree in General Office Management.

She was employed with several business including the Golden Eagle Motel, Fort Jackson Food Services, Taco Bell, Nations Bank/Bank of America, the SC Department of Mental Health Food Services, and Janitorial Services at Richland Memorial Hospital.

In addition to her parents, Abegail was also preceded in death by two sons, Toby Jermaine Odom and Alfred Lefon Odom; sisters, Pamela E. Baker, Wanda Ann Odom and Brendetta J. Newton.

Those who are cherishing fond and precious memories of Abegail are her loving daughter, Lillie Jackson, and her loving son, Samuel Jackson; her special friend, Darril Dozier, all of Columbia, SC; two granddaughters, and one grandson; caring brothers, Christopher Odom, William Michael Odom, Alfred B. Odom, and Owens Odom Jr. ; sisters, Janulita (Rev. Charles) Chambers and Emma Leslie Odom-Kounta; and a host of other loving relatives and dear friends, all of whom join the family in sharing the grief caused by her departure.

*An angel lived among us,
A gift from God above.
She showered us with kindness
And shared with us her love.*

*She cherished every moment
With the man who was her life;
Walking hand in hand together,
Facing life with all its strife.*

*She loved her children dearly,
Each one a different way,
Nestled close within her heart.
Though, now, she's far away.*

*She's gone to live with Jesus.
But, she's here with us, today,
Smiling down on every one of us,
And telling us she's okay.*
