How Do We Say "Goodbye"

*Us Daddy is who you'll always be,
A Father and a Friend
is what you were to me.
You leaving so suddenly
just isn't fair.
What you've meant to me,
no one could compare.
So, with tears in my eyes,
I say goodbye;
"Big Moose", "O'Thomas",
you were that guy.
Don't worry about us, we'll be okay,
Lord willing,
we will see you soon someday.*

THE FAMILY ACKNOWLEDGMENT
We the family of the late Frank Livingston, Sr. would like to send a heartfelt thank you to each and every one of you that showed any acts of love to us as we dealt with this unexpected loss. It is our prayer, that everything you've done for us, God multiplies it back one thousand folds.

REFLECTIONS OF HIS LIFE

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing."
II Timothy 4:7-8

Frank Livingston, Sr, was born June 12, 1950, in Columbia, South Carolina, the beloved son of the late Mack and Martha Davis Livingston. Frank was called home on Sunday, January 22, 2023, in Columbia, South Carolina.

Frank attended Richland County School District One where he graduated from C. A. Johnson High School in 1969. On November 6, 1969, he entered the United States Army, serving our county faithfully for three (3) years. During his time in the military, he served overseas in Germany then made his way back to the states where he was stationed at Fort McClellan Army Base in Anniston, Alabama. Upon receiving an Honorable Discharge, he returned to Columbia and joined the Army Reserves. Frank was then employed as a custodian and truck driver before he decided to continue his education and earn his certification in Automotive Service Technology, which was his first love.

In addition to his parents, Frank was also preceded in death by Alphonso, Sandra, Mae Alice, Marion, Mack, and Martha Livingston.

Frank affectionately known as (aka/O'Thomas; aka, "Moose"; aka /"US Daddy", was a loving father, son, brother, uncle, grandfather, and friend.

He is lovingly survived by Sulaiman (Deborah) Al-Karim, Nathaniel (Barbra) Livingston, Stanley Livingston, Antonio Livingston, Darren Livingston, Dorothy Livingston, Latifah Jarrett, and Betty Livingston; nephews, nieces, uncles, aunts, cousins, and a host of other loving relatives and dear friends.
