To Those I Love, And to Those Who Love Me

When I am gone, release me. Let me go
I have so many things to see and do.
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears, Be happy, we had so many years.
I gave you my love and you can only guess
How much you gave to me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown
But now it's time I traveled alone.
So grieve a while for me if grieve you must
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part
So bless those memories in your heart.
I won't be far away for life goes on
So if you need me , call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near with all my love around you soft and clear.
And then, when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and welcome you Home.

LIFE REFLECTIONS

"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all of them also that love his appearing."
2 Timothy 4:7-8

Annie Mae Smith Jackson was born on September 28, 1948, in Columbia, SC to Hampton Davis Sr. and Lillie Martin Davis.

She accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized at Progressive Church Of Our Lord Jesus Christ, Inc. in Columbia, SC. She later became a faithful and dedicated member of Grace Temple Deliverance Center in Columbia, SC where she served as the President of the Women's Dept, and member of the Leadership Team.

She attended the Public Schools of Richland County and graduated from C. A. Johnson High School. She continued her education and obtained her Certified Nursing Assistant Certificate and Associates of Human Services in Mental Health at Midlands Technical College in Columbia, SC; a Bachelor of Social Work at Columbia College in Columbia, SC; Master of Education in Creative Arts at Lesley University in Cambridge, MA; and Master's in Counseling at Webster University in Columbia, SC.

Annie influenced by her family and friends, was a loving and caring woman, who always dedicated her time, love, and attention to any and every one that needed it. She will be dearly missed.

Mrs. Smith was peacefully called home to be with the Lord on Sunday, June 4, 2023.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Leigh Darryl Jackson; her son, Willie E. Smith III; her parents, and siblings, Hampton Davis Jr., Rudolph Davis, Geneva Joyner, and Gladys Clinkscales.

Annie leaves to cherish her memory her daughter, Kimberly Conely of Columbia, SC; her granddaughter, Nevaeh Jones of Columbia, SC; her grandsons, Kelvin and Delvin Smith of Columbia, SC; her brother, Freddie Davis of Philadelphia, PA; her goddaughter/niece, Elizabeth Davis Larsen of Columbia, SC; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.
