Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free!
Miss me a little - but not for long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me, but let me go.
For this journey that we all must take
And each must go alone;
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me, but let me go.

REFLECTIONS OF HIS LIFE

LARRY DALE CUNNINGHAM

MARCH 5, 1966 ~ JANUARY 12, 2024

“Blessed are they that mourn, for they shall be comforted.”
Matthew 5:4

Mr. Larry Dale Cunningham entered the world on March 5, 1966, in Lincolnton, Georgia. He was the beloved son of Mr. Walter E. Cunningham, and the late Joann Mackey Cunningham. He departed this earthly journey for eternal rest on Friday, January 12, 2024

Larry was educated in the public schools of McCormick County School District and graduated from McCormick High School, Class of 1984. Larry served honorably in the South Carolina National Guard for four years. He worked for seven years as a Forklift Operator with MAU/BMW in Greer, South Carolina.

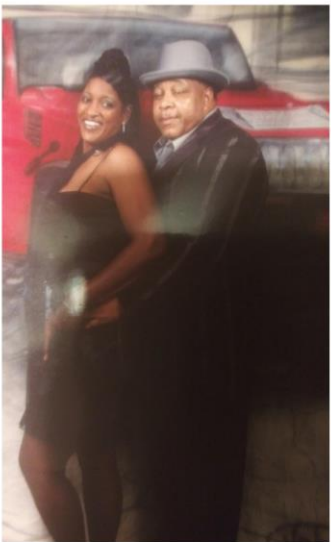

Larry, affectionally known as Dale, loved “Hot Rods” and fast cars. He was an avid fan of America’s Teams, “The Dallas Cowboys”, and he did not mind standing up for his team even when they lost! Larry enjoyed being home and spending time with his family and friends cooking on the grill, laughing, and joking.

Larry committed his life to Christ at a very young age and was a member of Mt. Moriah Baptist Church in Plum Branch, South Carolina

Larry was preceded in death by his mother, Joann M. Cunningham.

Larry leaves a family that will forever cherish precious memories, his loving and devoted wife of 28 years, Jeannette Moss Cunningham; his father, Walter E. Cunningham of Plum Branch, SC; children, Jessica Moss and Jerel Moss, of Atlanta, GA; Jorel Moss and Jarrick Moss, both of Greenville; stepsons, James Moss, of Charlotte, NC, and Jarvis (Myra) Adams of McCormick, SC; sisters, Yvonne Wheeler of Greenville, SC, and Jennifer Yeldell of McCormick, SC; brother, Tracey(Dorothy) Cunningham and Stanley Cunningham both of Plum Branch, SC; uncles, Charlie (Doris) Cunningham of Plum Branch, SC and James Mackey of McCormick, SC; aunts Deloris McManus of Edgefield, SC, Zellena Terry of New Jersey, Dorothy Adams of McCormick, SC, and Isabell Powell, Edna Landrum, and Mamie Gilchrist of Dorchester Mass; brothers-in-law, Jerry (Wanda) Moss of Charlotte, NC, and Jamel Moss, of Greenville, SC; sister-in-law, Jessie Mae Moss of Greenville, SC; and seven beloved grandchildren.

Larry also leaves behind a host of loving family and friends whom he held near and dear to his heart that will all miss him.
