A Fallen Limb

*A limb has fallen from the family tree.
I keep hearing a voice that says,
Grieve not for me.
Remember the best times,
the laughter, the song.
The good life I lived while I was strong.
Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.
Keep smiling and surely
the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.
Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.
Continue traditions, no matter how small.
Go on with your life, don't worry about falls
I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.
Until the day comes we're together again.*

REFLECTIONS OF HER LIFE

⁶ And he said unto me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely. ⁷ He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son.

Revelation 21:6-7 (KJV)

Mary Elizabeth Green was born July 21, 1949 in Columbia, South Carolina. She was the loving daughter of James and Irene Green. She entered into eternal rest on April 22, 2016.

“Mello”, as she was affectionately called by her family, attended Booker T. Washington High School. She also attended Midlands Technical College in Columbia, South Carolina.

Mary worked at the Olympia Mill for ten years and at Conoco for ten years. She also worked as a custodian for the University of South Carolina at the Solomon Blatt Center for twelve years, from where she retired.

Mary was a loving and devoted mother, spouse, grandmother, aunt and friend. Although physically she is no longer with us, her loving and kind spirit will forever live in our hearts.

She was predeceased by her parents and siblings: Roosevelt, Patricia, Brenda, James Jr., Eugene and Anthony Green.

Those left to cherish Mary’s precious memories are: her significant other of more than 40 years, Willie Jones; two daughters, Raponda (Ronald) Williams and August (Michael) Green; and seven wonderful grandchildren: Rolanda, Brittany and Octiva Williams, Future and Arabia Green and Saron and Benjamin Caldwell. She also leaves seven beautiful great-grandchildren: Clinton Walker, Maury Williams, Demetrius Robinson, Jr., Ty’Keira Bates, Kenard Walters, Miracle Walters and My’Kina Walters; and a host of nieces, nephews, other loving relatives and friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.

Time for me to go now, I won't say goodbye;
Look for me in rainbows, way up in the sky.
In the morning sunrise when all the world is new,
Just look for me and love me,
as you know I loved you.

Time for me to leave you, I won't say goodbye;
Look for me in rainbows, high up in the sky.
In the evening sunset,
when all the world is through,
Just look for me and love me, and I'll be close to you.

It won't be forever, the day will come and then
My loving arms will hold you, when we meet again.

Time for us to part now, we won't say goodbye;
Look for me in rainbows, shining in the sky.
Every waking moment,
and all your whole life through
Just look for me and love me
as you know I loved you.

Just wish me to be near you,
And I'll be there with you.
