Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*Now that I've come to the end of the road,
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low;
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to Jesus whom we know,
Laugh at the things we used to do.
Miss me, but let me go.*

THE WILLIAMS FAMILY ACKNOWLEDGMENT

We, the family of Donald A. Williams, wish to express our heartfelt appreciation for your many acts of love. Please join the family back at the church upper room for the repast.

REFLECTIONS OF HIS LIFE

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

II Timothy 4: 7-8 (KJV)

“Don”

Donald Allen Williams, the youngest of nine, was born July 6, 1968 in Atlanta, Georgia to Moses Williams and the late Minnie Lee Williams. In addition to his mother, he was preceded in death by his mother, Minnie Lee Williams, and two brothers, Eddie and Alphonso Williams. He was united in Holy Matrimony to Carol Fortson-Williams on February 14, 2012.

Donald accepted Christ at an early age. His first church was Shady Grove Baptist Church in Atlanta, Georgia, where he was a faithful member of the youth group and attended Sunday school regularly. He attended West Fulton High School in Atlanta and was a proud member of the Class of 1986. Upon relocating to Columbia, Donald was an active member of Word of God Church and Ministries, where he served on the audio video ministry.

He loved his family and friends, and especially enjoyed family gatherings. Don uplifted many people with his kind words, sense of humor and gentle spirit. He was truly a man of God. He was the owner and operator of Clean As New Carpet Care, LLC, and was a master barber for over 20 years. Donald was very creative and ahead of his time. His many talents will be missed, especially his great haircuts.
