There aren’t any words that can be said to describe exactly how I feel. My heart is weakened from the loss of you. I honestly feel selfish because I wish you could have stayed longer. You were my strength, my joy...my everything. The love that I have for you will never change. Your family cherished you, and all the moments that we all shared were some of the greatest. Michelle and I promise that we will protect and take care of Tyler, Jason, Sam, Dynasty, and most of all, your grandbaby, Melody. I can say that I will never make it through without thinking about you or wishing you were here. But I promise that I will finish all the plans that we planned together — and I will go through pains, Mama. I love you so much; and you will forever be my Mom. I know that we will see each other once again.

...Your loving daughter, Melissa

THE ROACH FAMILY ACKNOWLEDGMENT

We, the family of Ms. Rebecca Roach, thank everyone for their prayers and condolences during this difficult time.
For I am ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

II Timothy 4: 6-8 (KJV)

Rebecca Elizabeth Roach was born November 14, 1977 in Columbia, South Carolina to the late Willie Andrew Roach and Jackie Libby Tyler. She is survived by her daughters Michelle and Melissa Ollison; sons, Tyler Roach and Jason Rembert, Jr.; granddaughter, Melody Elizabeth; two sisters, Jennifer Goodwin and Jessica Wooden; and a brother, Willie Andrew Roach, Jr. She departed this life on March 10, 2017.

Rebecca was loved by many people. Her love and non-judgmental honesty gave her a joyful spirit that was contagious.

She was educated in the public schools of Richland District One, graduating from Lower Richland High School. She worked in the food service industry for over twenty years, earning a living to provide for her children. At the age of 38, Rebecca gave her life to Christ and became a member of Christ Fellowship International Baptist Church.

“Becky”, as she was affectionately known, loved to watch a good football game while cheering for her favorite team, the Dallas Cowboys! When she wasn’t doing that, she was spoiling her baby boy. Above all else, Becky loved all of her children. Rebecca cared for all of her family. There was nothing too big that she wouldn’t do for those she loved.

Rebecca Elizabeth “Becky” Roach will truly be missed. Rest in peace Angel.
