Miss Me, But Let Me Go

Now that I’ve come to the end of the road,
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low;
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It’s all a part of the Master’s plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to Jesus whom we know,
Laugh at the things we used to do.
Miss me, but let me go.

The Family Acknowledgment

The family of Ms. Nancy Davis wishes to thank you most sincerely for your expressions of kindness and sympathy during our recent bereavement. May God richly bless each of you.
Ms. Nancy Isabel Davis, a long-time resident of Columbia, South Carolina, departed this earthly life on Tuesday, the 25th of July, 2017 at Magnolia Manor. She was born June 23, 1932 in Winnsboro, South Carolina to the late Means and Farnell Davis.

Ms. Davis was educated in the Fairfield County School District. She worked various jobs throughout her life. She retired from the Elite Epicurean Restaurant in 1974. She was baptized in the name of Jesus Christ at the Church of Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ of the Apostolic Faith, where she remained a faithful member until her health failed.

Ms. Davis enjoyed going fishing with her sisters: Rebecca, Ella, Ethel and anyone else they could talk into taking them fishing. The challenge was to get a driver who would be willing to drive them and be forced to stay out there with all night.

Ms. Davis preceded in death by her parents, Mans and Farnell Davis, a son, a grandson, eight sisters and six brothers.

She is survived by her seven children: Robert Lee Davis, Mary Davis, Dorothy Addison, Dianna (Willie) Johnson, Nancy Addison, Bridgette Addison and Randy Davis; her sister, Mary Ann Lighten; seven grandchildren; eleven great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, loving relatives and friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.
