The Lord's Prayer

⁹Our Father which art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name.

¹⁰Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth,
as it is in heaven.

¹¹Give us this day, our daily bread.

¹²And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespassed against us.

¹³And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us
from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

THE FAMILY ACKNOWLEDGMENT

How truly grateful we are to have wonderful friends like you! Your love and support for our family has been very much appreciated during this time of loss.

We thank you for the many cards, calls, flowers and other generous acts. But most of all, we thank you for your prayers, as they continue to sustain us. Special thanks are extended to the Trinity Church family, White Oak, Maurice, Mary, Verdell and Wendell for your love and support.
May God bless and keep you all.

REFLECTIONS OF HER LIFE

*“Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give as the world gives.
Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid.”*

John 14: 27

Mrs. Willie Mae Freeman Mickle was born May 8, 1936, in Edgefield, South Carolina. She was the third of 4 children born to the late Willie & Corrie Brunson Freeman, and the step-daughter of the late Lula Bell L. Freeman. After a brief illness, she went home to be with the Lord on Friday, August 11, 2017, in Columbia, South Carolina.

Willie Mae attended the public schools of Edgefield County. After a car accident involving her parents, she left school in the 11th grade to come to Columbia to help support her family. She ended up staying and met the love of her life, the late Celestic Mickle of Winnsboro, SC. The two were united in Holy Matrimony in 1955. To their union two children were born.

Mrs. Mickle retired from the SC Department of Mental Health after more than 35 years of service. During her tenure with the state, she worked as the Lead cook in the Dietary Department and was later chosen to train under the Baker. She ultimately became the Lead Baker. Her cakes and pies were sought after by persons all over the state of South Carolina.

She was called “Nana” due to the loving way she had with children. Many young people passed through her home and were fed and nurtured at her table. Kristen, Marcus, Ross, Anna, Darshana, Tyler, David, Ronda, Jasmine, Monquie & Gerald were a part of Nana’s Angels. She loved each of them as if they were her own grandchildren.

A wonderful cook and baker, Willie Mae enjoyed cooking meals for others. Her specialty was baking birthday cakes for all of her nephews and nieces. She especially enjoyed hearing Maurice and Keta fuss over their birthday cakes every August 30th and September 3rd.

Mrs. Mickle, was baptized at an early age at Springfield Baptist Church, in Edgefield, SC. Upon relocating to Columbia, she joined the Jehovah Baptist Church where she served faithfully for many years. After the death of her husband, she joined the Columbia Christian Fellowship Church where she served for more than 30 years. While at CCF, she was a faithful member of the Sunday school, Choir, and was Chairperson of the Kitchen Ministry, where she ran a very tight ship. It was also during this time that she opened her home to young women for a “Lunch Time” Bible Study. She became well known for her gift of hospitality, and through her faithful discipleship, the Lord used her to touch the lives of many people all over Columbia. After many years of service to CCF, she was led to the Baracha Church where she attended faithfully and served as church mother. After serving there, she became a devoted member of the Trinity Baptist where she was a faithful and dedicated member of the Sunday School, Noonday Bible Study, and was a member of the Senior Citizen, Missionary and the Women’s Ministries.

She was a faithful prayer warrior, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt and friend who will be missed by all who loved and knew her.

She was also preceded in death by her son, Amaker; her bother, Nathaniel; and sister, Mary.

Mrs. Mickle is survived by her devoted and loving daughter, Carketa M. (Dec. Stacey, Sr.) Hampton of Columbia, SC; granddaughters, Leah Celeste McCullers of Mooresville, NC; and Michelle Lanier of Raleigh, NC; great-granddaughters, Royah & Eden; her beloved sister, Corrie F. (Jake) Holloway of Greenwood, SC; loving god-daughter, Shaneka R. Howell of Cayce, SC; loving and devoted nephews, Maurice (Dr. Mary) Holloway of Lexington, SC, Nathaniel (Joyce) Freeman of West Columbia, SC; Rev. Randy (Bridgette) Holloway of Greenwood, SC; Apostle Wendell Freeman of Irmo, SC; and Robert Holloway of Federal, MD; loving and devoted nieces, Rev. Verdell (Rev. Jimmy) Duggan, Annette Johnson, both of Columbia, SC; Sharon (James) Saxon, Deborah (Donald) Parks, of Greenwood, SC; Joretta (Johnny) Anderson of New Port News, VA; and Rachel (Anthony) Jones of Atlanta, GA; her two double first cousins whom she loved dearly, Truman Freeman and Claudine Freeman, both of Columbia, SC; loving sisters-in-law, Belinda G. Mickle of Philadelphia, PA; and Delphine M. Nelson of Glenarden, MD; and a host of other nephews, nieces, loving relatives and friends.

How is it that I never saw your wings

when you were here with me?

When you closed your eyes and soared to the Heavens, I could hear the faint flutter of you wings as you left.

Your body no longer on this side,

your spirit here eternally,

I see your halo shine.

I close my eyes and see the multi-colored wings surrounding me in my saddest moments and my happiest times.

Mother, my sweet angel,

God has given you your assignment:

always my mother, forever my angel.

You fly into my dreams; and when I am asleep,

I feel your wings brush against my face,

wiping away the tears I shed

because I can no longer hold you in my arms, only in my heart.

You earned those wings, dear mother;

and you will always be me angel eternal.
