Don’t grieve for me, for now I’m free
I’m following the path God has laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, or play,
I found the peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life’s been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one’s touch,
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don’t lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and peace to thee
God wanted me now; He set me free.

THE FAMILY ACKNOWLEDGMENT
We, the family of Mrs. Betty Jean Glenn wish to thank each of you for the many loving and wonderful acts of kindness rendered during the passing of our loved one. May God bless each of you with his grace and mercy.
Mrs. Betty Jean Glenn was born July 31, 1954 in Blythewood, South Carolina to the late Claude McCants and Ida Bell Washington McCants Greene. On Friday, November 3, 2017, her heavenly father called her home from Palmetto Health Richland. She was educated in the public schools of Fairfield County where she attended Bethel and Handberry High School. She was gainfully employed at the University of South Carolina; and when she wasn’t working, you could always find her doing what she loved to do: gardening and cooking. She was a loving person that cared for and checked on many.

On March 4, 1971, Betty was united in Holy matrimony to Willie Lee Green, Sr. To this union, five children were born. She was predeceased by her daughter, Betty Johnson. Betty’s love and legacy will forever live in the hearts of her husband, Willie Lee Glenn, Sr. of Columbia, SC; three daughters: Monica Glenn of Durham, North Carolina; Jana (Kevin) Hollis of Irmo, South Carolina; and Nytasha (Michael) Bray of Columbia, South Carolina; one son, Willie (Brandi) Glenn, Jr. of Columbia, South Carolina; twelve grandchildren and three great grandchildren; three sisters: Ruth Diamond, Stacy Brown, both of Blythewood, South Carolina, and Denise McCants of Columbia, South Carolina; and two brothers; Vernon and Claude McCants both of Columbia, South Carolina. She also leaves a very special friend of more than 40 years, Ms. Barbara Morris, as well as a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and caring friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.

 Heaven lit up with a mighty presence as the Angels all looked down. Today the Lord was placing the jewels into my mother’s crown.

He held up a golden crown as my darling mother looked on. He said in His gentle voice ‘I will now explain each one.’

‘The first gem,’ He said, ‘is a Ruby and it’s for endurance alone. For all the nights you waited up for your children to come home.’

‘I’ll place a stone of amethyst,’ He said for all the times you spent on your knees. When you asked if I’d take care of your children and then for having faith in Me.’

‘And last of all I have a diamond, the greatest one of all. For sharing unconditional love whether they were big or small.’

After the Lord placed the last jewel in he said, ‘Your crown is now complete. You’ve earned your place in Heaven with your children at your feet.’
